

Ike Warns Of Grave Problems Ahead

Red Threat To Berlin, Cuba Cited

President Makes His Farewell State Of Union Message

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told Congress in a farewell State of the Union message today that America has forged ahead in foreign and economic policy in the last eight years, but still confronts grave problems.

The retiring chief executive cited the continuing Communist menace to Berlin, in Cuba, and elsewhere in the world. And he

Ike Requests Prayers

For Future U.S. Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower described America today as standing at unprecedented heights, and asked prayers that future leaders will be able to keep this nation strong and at peace.

spoke of intermittent declines in economic activity at home which he said leave "little room for complacency."

"I do not close this message implying that all is well—that all problems are solved, for progress implies both new and continuing problems and, unlike presidential administrations, problems rarely have terminal dates," Eisenhower said.

"Abroad there is the continuing Communist threat to the freedom of Berlin, an explosive situation in Laos, the problems caused by Communist penetration in Cuba, as well as the many problems connected with the development of the new nations in Africa. These areas, in particular, call for delicate handling and constant review."

"At home several conspicuous problems remain—promoting higher levels of employment, with special emphasis on areas in which heavy unemployment has persisted; continuing to provide for steady economic growth and preserving a sound currency; bringing our balance of payments into more reasonable equilibrium and continuing a high level of confidence in our national and international systems; eliminating heavily excessive surpluses of a few farm commodities; and overcoming deficiencies in our health and educational programs."

But there were notes of confidence and hope in a message that looked both backward and forward. And there were good wishes for the man who will succeed Eisenhower eight days from now.

The present chief executive did not mention President-elect John F. Kennedy by name. But he said a new president shortly will lay before Congress proposals for shaping the future of a great land, and: "To him, every citizen, whatever his political beliefs, prayerfully extends best wishes for good health and for wisdom and success in coping with the problems that confront our nation."

The message, in contrast with Eisenhower's usual practice of delivering it in person, merely was sent to Capitol Hill to be read to the Senate and House.

Eisenhower skipped one other personal presentation, in 1956, when he was recovering from a heart attack.

While Eisenhower had a brief offering of good will to Kennedy, he nevertheless held up the rec-

Webster To Enter Race For Council President

Samuel B. Webster, 1730 Idaho Ave., Fourth Ward councilman in 1958-59, announced today he will seek the Republican nomination for Council president in the May 2 primaries.

An employee of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. for 15 years, Webster is married and has a daughter, Debbie, who attends Westgate School. An East Liverpool native, he is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Webster Jr. of Monroe St.

Webster is president of the East Liverpool Men's Republican Club and a member of the County GOP Executive Committee, the East Liverpool GOP Central Committee, the Nonpareil Club and the Elks Lodge. He is former chairman of the Pleasant Heights Parent-Teacher Association and a former vestryman at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Legislative Action Due

Ohio's Long-Time Jobless Assured Of GOP Attention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Majority Republicans in the legislature apparently are intent on doing something for Ohio's long-time unemployed.

They spurned Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's bid for short-term, emergency extension of benefits during a special session late last year, in the dying days of the Democratic-dominated General Assembly.

Now that they are on their own, they are looking for both short-term and long-term solutions to the periodic peaks and valleys of employment.

Hearings are due to start shortly on a whole series of bills aimed at alleviating distress caused by the present economic recession and resulting unemployment. "Certainly," asserted House Speaker Roger Cloud in a special prepared statement, "people who are in a state of severe need cannot be left without some source of aid. This will not be done in Ohio," Cloud declared, adding, "nor has it been done up to this point."

But, he asserted, while the legislature must meet the needs of those who are in want, "opportunities for employment at a good wage and for incomes which will keep Ohio's economy active and prosperous also are necessities."

The Republican majority in the House, Cloud emphasized, is not committed to any definite course of action until committee hearings have ended.

With the floodgates wide open, the legislature Wednesday received 47 bills—16 in the Senate and 31 in the House—and expected another flock today before weekend adjournment.

Among Wednesday's most controversial bills was a House measure to strip the State Highway Department of about $51 million in the next two years and channel the money to road funds in cities, counties and townships.

The move was suggested by Rep. Dan O. Taber, R-Gallia, in the wake of Gov. DiSalle's "state-of-the-state" message admonition that it would be deplorable to cut available highway funds now in view of the availability of 90 per cent matching money from the federal government for interstate highways.

Another possible Republican approach to the need of local governments for more money for roads and streets is a proposal to finance operations of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety from the state gasoline taxes rather than from the state license-tag money. That suggestion was made

Kennedy Fills 4 Top Jobs In Interior Unit

Says Eisenhower's Reclamation Bureau Chief Will Remain

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today filled four top positions in the Interior Department. He also announced that the Eisenhower administration's reclamation bureau chief will remain.

The reclamation commissioner is Floyd E. Dominy, 60. A political independent and a veteran in the bureau, he was named director by President Eisenhower last year.

The president-elect also announced selection of: James K. Carr, 46, chairman of the California Water Commission, as undersecretary of the interior.

Kenneth Holm, 45, Groom, S.D., farm leader, as assistant secretary for water and power. John A. Carver Jr., 42, administrative assistant to Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, as assistant secretary for land resources.

And Frank Barry, 47, Tucson, Ariz., lawyer, as the Interior Department's solicitor or chief legal officer.

Kennedy announced the selections—all Democrats—after consultation with Rep. Stewart Udall, D-Ariz., who will be secretary of the interior in the new administration.

Kennedy, getting in a final visit at the Atlantic shore home of his parents before taking office Jan. 20, had only one scheduled business engagement today—a morning conference with Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina.

The president-elect plans fur-

Liberals Take Senate Defeat On Filibuster

'Devastating Blow,' Sen. Keating Says In Setback On Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defeated in their drive to strengthen the Senate's antifilibuster rule at the outset of the new Congress, Senate liberals took a glum view today of their chances for success later.

"A devastating blow," said Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., who contend a rules change is necessary to permit passage of meaningful civil rights legislation. But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of Southern foes of the move, hailed the outcome as "a great victory for the sanity, dignity and prerogatives of the Senate."

He also called it a rebuke for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Senate's presiding officer until Jan. 20, who sided with proponents of a change on a key parliamentary question.

The controversy, which has tied up the Senate since it convened Jan. 3, was shunted off to the Senate Rules Committee Wednesday by a 50-46 vote.

Democratic senators divided 32 for and 31 against the sidetracking move. The line-up of Republicans was 18 for and 15 against.

A similar liberal-conservative row in the House reached the compromise stage Wednesday. It revolves around the House Rules Committee and its conservative coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats which in the past often has blocked social welfare legislation.

Temperature Above Freezing

Chances Good For No Rain Or Snow Inauguration Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a better than even chance that it won't rain or snow on Jan. 20, Inauguration Day. And the chances are even better that the temperature will be above freezing.

That should be a bit comforting if you are one of the thousands who has dealt out from $3 to $25 for a grandstand seat to watch President John F. Kennedy's inaugural parade.

There is one parade unit that is rather hoping for a heavy snow. That's from the state of Maine, and it has 10 northwoods huskies ready to pull a sled down Pennsylvania Avenue.

If there's no snow, they'll have to put wheels on the sled, and that might spoil the effect.

The Weather Bureau says it's still too early to forecast the weather accurately for Jan. 20, but the weathermen checked into the past records and came up with these statistics:

There's a chance of 3 out of 5 that there will be no rain or snow, and an 8 out of 10 chance for above-freezing temperatures.

Inauguration Day was changed from March 4 to Jan. 20 in 1937, for Franklin D. Roosevelt's second inaugural. It rained heavily. But since then there have been

2nd Reading On Sales Tax Bills Slated

Legislature Fails To Hustle Barron's Hike Bid To Passage

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Gov.-elect W. W. Barron's sales tax increase bills came up for amendment under normal procedure in the West Virginia Legislature today after failure of an attempt to hustle them on to passage.

Each house had the two companion bills at second reading — amendment stage — for today's 2 p.m. meetings. Two bills are required because the 7½-month tax increase would span the last part of this fiscal year and the first part of the next.

During the period of the increase the consumers' sales tax rate would be 3 per cent on purchases in excess of $1. After next Aug. 31, the rate would drop back to the present 2 per cent.

Barron asked for the temporary boost to bring in $7.5 million to finance an emergency public works program. The projects would be a stopgap to give work to the jobless while long-term steps to relieve unemployment were being pushed.

Some opposition has developed to the Barron bills because no corresponding increase in the use tax was proposed. The use tax, a companion of the consumers' sales tax, is a 2 per cent levy on items bought in other states for use in West Virginia.

It was argued that leaving the use tax at 2 per cent while raising the sales tax to 3 per cent above $1 would invite people in border counties to buy in neighboring states. The argument could result in hurried preparation of a use tax increase bill by the Barron forces.

If normal procedure prevails, the sales tax bills will come up for passage in both houses tomorrow. But there was a possibility — not too strong — of another House attempt to bring the bills up for passage today.

Again the obstacle would be the four-fifths vote needed to suspend the constitutional rule which says a bill must be read on three separate days.

The bills were introduced yesterday.

Gosney Says County Jobs Are Protected

Firing another salvo in the running feud with Columbiana County commissioners over the status of about 15 courthouse job-holders, the county Democratic chairman said he has been reassured by state officials the posts are under the protection of Civil Service.

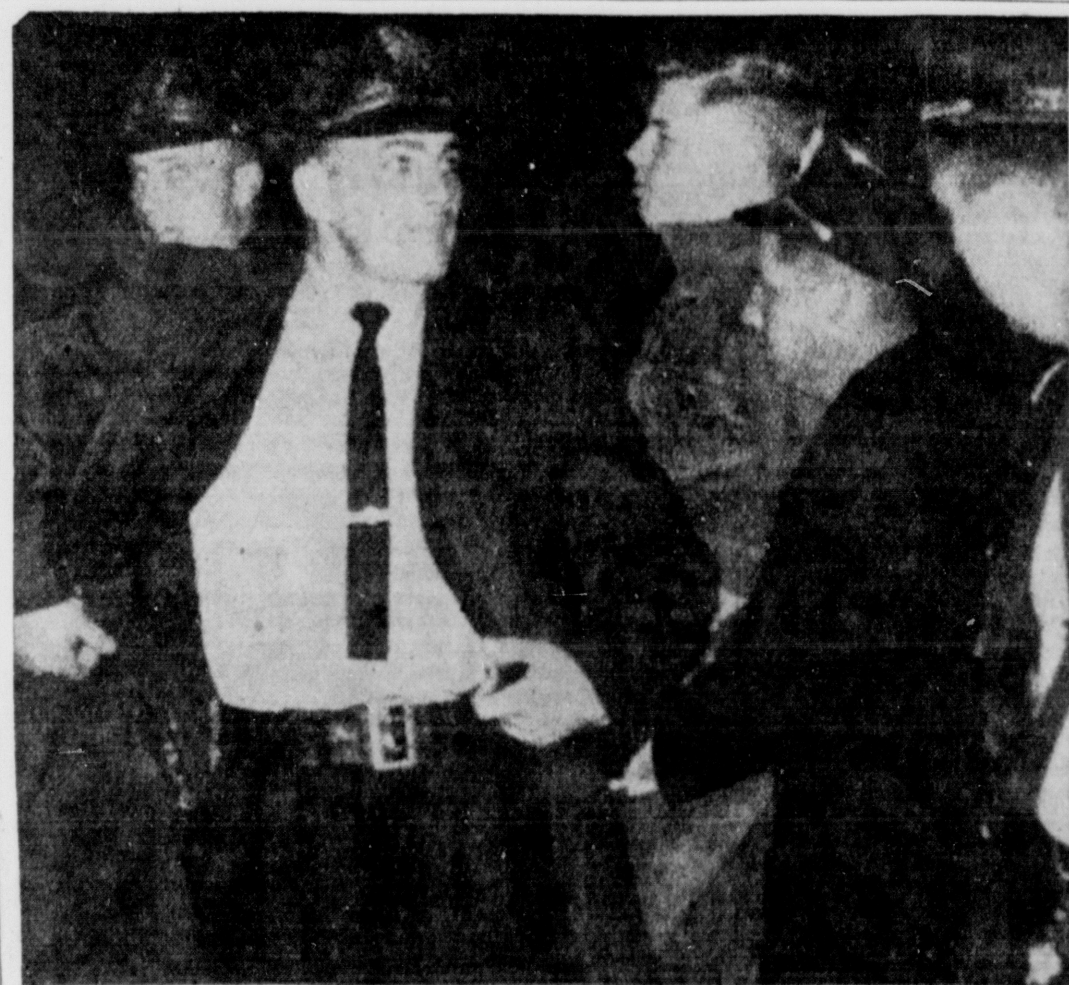

Republican members of the Board of County Commissioners cited a ruling Wednesday by Prosecutor G. William Brokaw that the job-holders do not have classified service protection.

But Don R. Gosney, county Democratic chairman, said he again conferred with the Ohio Department of Personnel, and was assured by George Madden of the department that the employees in question have Civil Service status.

Madden said the opinion given last week by James Welsh was consistent with the law, and that an examination would have to be given and an eligibility list formed before the county workers could be replaced.

Gosney said the same situation applied when the Democrats took control of the commissioners two years ago, but they did not realize several of the employees had Civil Service status.

When the employees did not report for work, they then lost the status, and new appointees were legally acceptable, he said.

VIOLENCE ON GEORGIA U. CAMPUS. Policeman reaches for his sidearm as he and fellow officers prepare to move in on a group of demonstrators during rioting Wednesday on the University of Georgia campus. Violence At Georgia U. Negroes' Ousting To Be Contested

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—Negro attorneys hurried to Macon today to contest in federal court suspension of two members of their race from the University of Georgia after rioting and violence erupted on the campus a few hours after they first attended classes.

The university opened for classes at 8 a.m. without Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, who were removed from the school early today by state troopers under a proclamation of Gov. Ernest Vandiver that emergency action was needed to restore order.

An uproarious crowd of students and townspeople estimated by police at 2,000 swirled about the dormitory occupied by Charlayne and Vandiver acted.

The young Negroes, visibly shaken, reached their homes in a patrol car in the predawn hours. Both declined comment.

Joseph Williams, university dean of students, announced their suspension "in the interest of their personal safety and in the interest of the safety and welfare of the more than 7,000 students at the university."

"They will be withdrawn until such time as the members of my staff and I determine that it is safe and practical for them to return to school," Williams said.

Donald L. Hollowell and other counsel for the students, were to present the suspension order to U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle with a request that it be voided.

Chief of Police E. E. Hardy called Wednesday night's outburst "organized rowdiness, led by strangers from out of the city."

It followed shortly after further tension created by Georgia Tech's 89-80 overtime basketball victory over the university team in a disputed decision.

He said outside agitators capitalized on student tenseness built up by the basketball game. Older persons were observed in the crowd, shouting "Come on, let's get them."

The demonstrators threw rocks at the dormitory windows, threw firecrackers starting fires in nearby fields and woods, chanted segregation slogans and yelled "Nigger, go home." Holmes was not a direct target. He lives off the campus.

Police unloosed tear gas bombs at the crowd and firemen hosed down the fires. Some police, firemen and bystanders were hit by flying rocks. One girl was injured slightly.

During the disorder a group of cars pulled up at the scene and occupants distributed copies of a Ku Klux Klan newspaper, the Rebel.

All 36 members of the police force at Athens, a town of about 20,000, were used in quelling the riot.

The governor also admonished all citizens of the state against any acts of violence and warned all

Contract Let On Dog Pound For Hancock

Chester Contractor Gets $6,220 Job As Lowest Of 4 Offers

A contract to build a new dog pound was awarded Robert E. Finley, Chester contractor, Wednesday afternoon by Hancock County Court.

Finley's bid of $6,220 for the 36-x-48-foot cement block building was the lowest of 4 received by the court.

William Graham, County Court president, said construction of the new structure on the County Farm near Pughtown is scheduled to begin Monday and will be completed within two weeks.

The other bidders and their offers were Byrum Construction Co. of Wheeling, $7,490; Armeo Co. of Clarksburg, $8,210.60; and Barks Engineering & Construction Co. of Weirton, $9,974.90.

Graham said the court probably will appoint two deputy dog wardens after screening applications Monday. Some 30 written applications for the 2 posts have been received, he said.

Source Of Salineville Water Leak Still Sought

SALINEVILLE — Water department workers today continued a search for an apparent large-scale underground water break which has been causing a heavy drain on the municipal reservoir since Sunday.

Pumping operations have almost been doubled to maintain a sufficient water level in the reservoir to supply the town's needs. It is believed the large run-off may be through one of the many abandoned coal shafts in the area.

Director Bans Parking At Avondale, St. Clair

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver today issued a 90-day order banning parking on the triangular patch of pavement at the "point" where St. Clair Ave. and Avondale St. intersect on North St.

The director said he issued the order as a safety measure. He said he has received complaints that trucks which park in the center of the intersection block the view of drivers approaching on both thoroughfares.

Diplomatic Circles Fear Retaliation

Grave Concern Seen In First Air Raid Of 6-Year Civil War

VIENTIANE, Laos (delayed by censorship) (AP) — American-supplied planes flown by Laotian pilots strafed and bombed pro-Communist rebel forces Wednesday for the first time.

British, French and other European diplomats in the Laotian capital expressed grave concern the air raid—first reported in the six-year-old civil war—would trigger a retaliatory action by the Soviet Union or Communist China.

The Laotian pilots made their raid in four T-6 observation planes armed with rockets, machine guns and presumably with two 100-pound bombs each. The United States had delivered the planes to pro-Western Premier Boun Oum's forces Tuesday as part of the U.S. military support program for Laos.

Boun Oum's government had warned the Soviet government Monday that unless it halted its airlift of arms and ammunition to Communist forces in central Laos, it would take "appropriate steps."

"What are we—or the Laotians—supposed to do?" asked a top American official. "Let the Russians keep pouring their guns and ammunition in? And once the Communists are ready, is the Laotian government supposed to lie down and let the Communists walk over them?"

"Now that the first bomb has been dropped," a British diplomat commented, "no town or village in Laos will be safe from air attack."

Thief Obtains China, Silver In Parked Car

A sneak thief obtained a saleswoman's sample case containing $300 worth of sterling silver, fine china and crystal from a parked car Wednesday night on Mulberry St., police reported.

Mrs. Janet Keller, 534 Lincoln St., Newell, a sales representative of the Empire Crafts Corp. of New York City, said the merchandise was taken from her unlocked auto between 7:30 and 10:30.

It included four place settings each of silver and china and one crystal goblet, she reported. But the thief will not be able to set an orderly table because each place setting of silver and china is of a different pattern, Mrs. Keller said.

She said she left the sample case in her auto while visiting a beauty shop prior to calling on a prospective customer. The loss is insured, Mrs. Keller said.

Meanwhile, officers also are investigating a burglary last night or early today in the Pottery Products, Inc. salesroom on Webber Way in which apparently nothing was taken.

The intruder gained entry by breaking a 12-x-14-inch pane of glass alongside the front door, then reaching through the opening to manipulate the lock, officers said. Drawers and a cashbox were ransacked in the pottery and glass outlet.

The intruder then went downstairs to an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. garage and let himself out via an overhead door, officers said. The entry occurred between 6 p. m. yesterday and 8 a. m. today.

Some new features are being incorporated for this year's dinner, making it a little more elaborate, Dawson said.

Some 150 are expected to attend.

Five elders and three trustees were elected and the budget was approved at the congregational meeting of the First United Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening. About 137 attended the dinner and meeting.

Elders include Hugh Barbour, John Connell, John Davidson, W. W. Sloan and Don Smith, and the trustees are Ed Derr, Don Ogilvie and Robert Sample.

John Skidmore was elected treasurer.

The nominating committee for 1962 was also named and includes William Ogilvie, chairman, Richard Welch, Joseph Chadwick, Mrs. Ray Bigelow, Mrs. Harmon Chaney, Mrs. T. Fred Edwards and Miss Ruth Ann Coleman.

A budget of $28,595 for the church and $8,788 for missions was approved.

Dr. Alexander K. Davidson, pastor, conducted the ecclesiastical meeting and Everett Croft, chairman of the congregation, was in charge of the corporational session.

enlarging the committee as the least painful way of curbing the coalition's power to keep bills locked up in the committee.

Another way would have been to purge Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., a member of the coalition who bolted the Kennedy-Johnson ticket last fall. Under the compromise Colmer will keep his committee seat, but two more Democrats and one Republican will be added to the committee. This should give the liberal group in the committee the edge in voting.

The Senate motion to refer the dispute to its rules committee for hearings was made by Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana. He had the support of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader.

2 Motorists Penalized After Traffic Arrests

Two motorists were penalized today in Municipal Court on traffic charges.

Mrs. Margaret E. Lyle of R. D. 1 was fined $10 and costs on a State Highway Patrol charge of failure to yield the right-of-way in a mishap Dec. 17 at the intersection of the Y. & O. Rd. and Martha St., Glenmoor.

Fred Carter, 529 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, forfeited a $15 bond on a charge of operating an auto without a driver's license. He was arrested at 2:53 this morning on W. 8th St.

Because of the illness of the arresting officer, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff ordered a continuance until Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. in the case of Ronnie Lee Hackathorn of Columbia St. Ext., Leetonia, cited Friday on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way. He was cited in a crash on W. 8th St.

Ike

ord of his own administration as one worthy of building upon.

And, in effect, he challenged some of Kennedy's campaign pronouncements and some of the findings of task forces which have been advising the president-elect.

Eisenhower said that out of the sum of experiences of his eight years in office, "lessons will emerge that are useful to our nation."

Speaking in broad terms of these eight years, the President said that during the period "the United States has forged ahead under a constructive foreign policy" but the activities of the Communist movement throughout the world "have caused and are continuing to cause grave troubles."

Here at home, Eisenhower said, these have been times for careful adjustment of the economy from the artificial impetus of a hot war to constructive growth in a precarious peace.

His administration, he said, has built a new economic vitality without inflation and at the same time increased spending to keep abreast both of added international responsibilities and of the needs of a growing population with its new problems.

Echoing, in effect, a key campaign cry of Vice President Richard M. Nixon in his losing race for the White House, Eisenhower said in the field of foreign policy that, since the signing of the Korean War armistice in 1953, "Americans have lived in peace in highly troubled times."

He ticked off a list of American positions and actions around the world—in the Suez crisis, the Middle East, the Far East, Berlin.

He cited this country's atom-for-peace program, its support of the United Nations, his own extensive world travels which he said were so successful they were a significant factor in causing the Soviet Union to wreck last year's summit conference.

It was a recital calculated to answer Kennedy's campaign complaints that American prestige in the world has slipped seriously.

Eisenhower wound up his listing of programs in the foreign policy area by saying they must go on. "New tactics will have to be developed, of course, to meet new situations, but the underlying principles should be constant," he said.

"Our great moral and material commitments to collective security, deterrence of force, international law, negotiations that lead to self-enforcing agreements, and the economic interdependence of free nations should remain the cornerstone of a foreign policy that will ultimately bring permanent peace with justice in freedom to all mankind."

Neville Group Has Program

A health program and a white elephant sale featured the meeting of the Neville Home and School James Stickler, president, presided.

Mrs. Edna Jones, school nurse, was guest speaker and also demonstrated the instruments used in examining students. William Savors, principal, screened films on health with Mrs. Jones as narrator.

Mrs. Martha White, first grade instructor, demonstrated the new electric duplicator the unit purchased last year.

James Pryor and Keith Dunlevy were auctioneers for the white elephant sale.

The attendance banner was won by the first grade.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Glenn Brunstetter, pastor of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church.

Refreshments were served by the first grade homeroom mothers.

The next meeting is Feb. 14.

in a bill submitted by Rep. Carlton Davidson, R-Lawrence.

A Republican bill, sponsored by Rep. Robert F. Groneman, R-Hamilton, was introduced to bring Ohio law into conformity with federal statutes with respect to federal medical care for the aged. There is a possibility, however, that Congress may change the federal law under the spur of President-elect John F. Kennedy before the Ohio law can go into effect.

Other eye-catching measures which filtered into the legislature Wednesday included bills to:

Junk the Department of Industrial and Economic Development and return its functions to the old Division of Economic Development and Publicity under the Commerce Department at an annual budget of $100,000 instead of $500,000. The new department is a pet DiSalle project which, he has said, may be one of the important achievements of his administration. The repealer is jointly sponsored by Reps. Terry Drake, R-Crawford, and Taber, both veteran legislators.

Exempt farm bulk milk tanks from storage and use taxes.

Enact the uniform commercial code bill which apparently has picked up important support since it was ditched in the last days of the 1959 session.

Exempt sales of food by religious organizations from the Ohio sales tax as well as Bibles, flags, medicine and other health-promoting devices.

Extend the 1959 law re-establishing quail hunting in Ohio after a 40-year lapse to allow shooting of the bobwhite anywhere during the pheasant-hunting season.

Require boards of election to have paper ballots available in cases of voting machine breakdowns.

Give the state superintendent of banks a four-year term compared with his present two-year term.

Give employees of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction a 40-hour week instead of the present 44-hour week.

Create senatorial sub-districts in single counties which, in themselves, are senatorial districts now with two or more senators.

Palestine Savings Firm Lists Record Assets

EAST PALESTINE — Record assets of $6,276,086 for the East Palestine Savings & Loan Association were reported at the annual stockholders meeting Wednesday night.

Dividend payments totaling $189,000, another record high for the 70-year-old institution, were made. Re-elected directors were J. Ross Wilhelm, Thomas Moore, E. C. Garside and T. J. Read. Holdover directors are R. B. McCommon, C. W. Gandy and H. E. Glickler. The directors will reorganize next Wednesday night.

Downtown Crash Damages Trucks

A mishap in a downtown Alley Wednesday damaged the bumpers of a Post Office truck and a parked truck owned by the Azzell Dairy Co., 2023 Lisbon St., police reported.

Newell Glenn Poling, 34, of Thompson Ave., operator of the government truck, said he was watching two pedestrians as he turned off W. 5th St. into Peach Alley and the rear bumper of his vehicle hooked onto the front bumper of the dairy truck.

Another mishap on E. 5th St. near Walnut St. Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. involved a 1953 coupe driven by Goldie Keener, 169 Pennsylvania Ave., and a 1950 sedan operated by David H. Couch, 17, of 754 Minerva St. The left rear fender and fender skirt of the Keener car were scratched, police said.

The Governor's Idea Of Justice

Michael V. DiSalle has been a good governor in most respects, but once again he presumably has left his prejudice against capital punishment influence him into gross misuse of his gubernatorial powers.

He has commuted the sentence of another person convicted of murder, this time saving the life of Mrs. Edythe Klumpp, whom a jury had condemned to death.

Here was a woman who had been found guilty of shooting to death the wife of the man who was her lover, then setting fire to the victim's body in an attempt to cover up the murder.

MRS. KLUMPP confessed to the crime. She repudiated the confession later, of course, as many criminals do when they face the prospect of paying the penalty. She changed her story again, after she was refused a new trial, and tried to pin the blame on her lover. The courts did not accept that story.

The jury which tried Mrs. Klumpp was so convinced of her guilt that it discarded its prerogative of decreeing mercy, which would have saved her life. The Ohio courts and the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the conviction.

Gov. DiSalle now has substituted his own judgment and commuted the woman's death sentence.

"Justice could not be served by her execution," the governor said.

What is the definition of justice? The governor is entitled to his opinion, but the laws of Ohio define justice in first degree murder as the death penalty—if a jury so decides. The law leaves the decision up to the jury. If a defendant is found guilty, he can be punished with imprisonment—or death.

Perhaps the governor is right in his opposition to capital punishment. He has good arguments from notable authorities on his side.

The other side may be right, too. It likewise has many good arguments.

IF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT should be abolished, that is a decision the Ohio Legislature—or the people via a referendum—must make. If capital punishment is the law, the governor should uphold it.

The governor was given the power of commutation in order to correct obvious miscarriages of justice, not because he might think one defendant should be executed and another should not.

We are entirely sympathetic with Gov. DiSalle's right to oppose capital punishment, even though we disagree with him.

But we do not believe he should substitute his judgment for that of a jury and the courts whom the law clothes with authority for passing judgment.

In Behalf Of The Steel Industry

If the United Steelworkers Union had been as willing to listen to management's ideas for efficient production as it is now to talk about making more jobs and manufacturing more steel, the omen for understanding would be bright.

But summer before last, nearly all the nation's steel industry lay idle because union spokesmen refused to consider a proposal to re-examine work rules with a view to suggesting improvements. That was the central issue of the 1959 strike.

Steel management wanted to tighten up the efficiency of production to make steel more competitive with other materials that had been edging in on its markets and to cool off red-hot competition from steel made abroad.

It proposed nothing drastic—merely a study of existing work rules. All recommendations for change would have had to be screened and rescreened before they could have been adopted—and then adopted only with union consent. But the United Steelworkers Union would have none of it.

The deadlock lasted 116 days.

THE SETTLEMENT offered no direct assurance of management-union cooperation to tighten up steel production.

Its net effect, once steel inventories had been rebuilt, was to make thousands of steel workers the highest-paid unemployed and part-time artisans of their kind in the world.

The American steel industry earned the right to lead the world because it set the fastest pace for efficiency. It has continued to make itself so efficient that stiffening foreign competition can touch it only through payment of low wages. If it had a free rein to improve its man-hour costs in the same way it has improved its mechanical operation, it would continue to be unbeatable. Japanese wage standards, German wage standards, British wage standards and even competition from aluminum and other materials would not be worrisome.

This could be done, moreover, without hurting American wage scales.

But the United Steelworkers Union would not consent to having it discussed in connection with its new contract. When the contract finally was drawn, there were merely nominal reference to the matter—a clause with no effect.

The Once Over

Fidel Castro's Day: 1. He wakes in the middle of the night and finds he has not dreamed of an invasion by the United States. He orders immediate investigation with mass arrests.

2. He goes back to bed but can't get to sleep because of extreme disappointment over loss of this dream. Takes a sleeping pill.

3. He goes to sleep but has a dream in which the U.S.A. is his best friend, with no intention of attacking anybody. He issues order to have the drugstore who sold him sleeping pills shot.

4. He decides to try dreaming while wide awake. (It ain't hard.) He announces that Americans in force are en route to the beaches. A staff member asks, "Are you sure?" He is arrested as unreliable and disloyal.

5. Now he orders all newspapers to come out at once using the same headline, "Yanks at our Throats." An editor asks if "reported at our throats" would not be better. He is jailed as a counterrevolutionist.

6. Castro announces he will make a three-hour speech saying Yanks will attack Cuba in two hours. There is immediate roundup of Cubans reported as asking, "If the attack is coming in two hours why take three hours to tell us?"

7. He makes three-hour speech describing landings, bombings and street battles. Two generals ask for specific details. They are seized and thrown into Morro Castle dungeons.

8. In the general hysteria he, too, becomes confused and sends demand to the United Nations that Security Council meet at once to ascertain why his hallucinations are not voted on and accepted as calling for U.N.'s support.

DRAFT BOARDS have been ordered to reject any draftee who is color blind. In this age of electronic devices in war, inability to distinguish red from green, for example, can

THE UNION'S spokesman now wants to talk seriously about sprucing up the steel industry and getting more men back to work. Management would like to do some sprucing up too, but it can't be blamed for thinking the union is a little late in showing its interest.

If they can get together, it will be better late than never. This has been one of America's dreams—that in this great country the class warfare of the Old World could be chucked and managers and workers could see eye to eye.

If they were to spend half as much time and energy licking their common problems as they have spent trying to lick each other, the sky would be the limit for productive efficiency in the United States.

Sound Planning

Another example of the results of sound planning is offered by the three-state redevelopment program completed by the city of Norfolk, Va.

Launched in 1951, it saw the elimination of 123 acres of downtown slums, provided rights of way for two boulevards, widened three main streets, provided a site for 752 low-rent dwellings, opened up nine acres for commercial use and 28 acres for light industry; in 1957, 135 more blighted areas were cleared, and in 1958, 165 more providing land for further projects.

The results are outlined in an attractive brochure now being distributed throughout the country.

As Charles L. Kaufman, chairman of the Norfolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority, points out: "This comprehensive plan for rebuilding the heart of our city has been made possible through the enthusiastic support and wholehearted cooperation of the city government, of leaders in business, industry and public affairs, and of the overwhelming majority of our Norfolk citizens."

Whether it be Norfolk, Va., or East Liverpool, Ohio, planning is necessary before proper redevelopment can be achieved.

Despite the many setbacks that have been experienced, those in a position to do so here should never give up the fight for such a program.

be disastrous. Have you noticed how gals' spring hats imitate Mrs. John P. Kennedy's. Also the hairdo?

Divot diggers feel better now. Arnold Palmer took 12 strokes on one hole in a recent tournament and it's a terrific help to duffer morale.

F. P. T. says Castro's first crack each morn is "Where's my daily invasion?"

Jim Reston says that an embassy elevator shaft bears words: "Press to Ascend" and "Press to Descend," instead of "UP and DOWN." It's a general trend never to use one simple word when the message can be complicated. For example, take those new thruways where the signs read: "No Crossing Median Line." (Middle) would make it too understandable.)

AT&T has hit new highs on the stock market, showing people have begun to think the telephone is here to stay. Other stock boosters have been the fact that people call more often than ever, talk longer and have their phone bills run up because of the six little words: "Will you hang on a minute?" from most business offices, while the secretary or phone girl files and forgets. It has become common routine for secretaries, etc. to receive inquiry "Is Mr. Jones in?" with blunt reply that he is busy and will you stand by. That often ends contact for what seems hours. All the traditional courtesy of checking to see if you are still alive has gone. Relations are severed with no concern whether the man on the phone is getting nervous prostration, battle fatigue or high blood pressure. The office secretaries and phone office phone girls are a big help to AT&T and should get a cut of the profits.

The highest active volcano in Europe is Mount Etna, in the Sicilian province of Catania, Italy.

Business As Usual In Moscow

Plan Eyed To Ease Import Problem

By Victor Riesel

CHICAGO There's a new campaign sticker on auto bumpers in town. It reads: "Unemployment—Made In Japan."

It's apart of a drive by some folks who like to eat — not sumptuously, just regularly. There's a good chance that they might not.

They're among the 700,000 "electronic" workers made jobless by imports from Japan. The stickers are part of a "Buy American" campaign launched recently by Frank Darling, leader of the electrical brotherhood's Local 1031.

This is a huge local which covers the shops which "feed" the inner parts and gadgets to almost 85 per cent of the radio and television industry.

For months now, Darling has watched his membership being slashed from 47,000 to 23,000 by the razor-edged sales policies of Japanese competitors.

He has been losing his people at the rate of more than 1,000 a month—9,000 in eight months, to be exact.

EVERY MEMBER lost means a job permanently wiped out. Every vanishing American job means vanishing sales and profits for the U.S. electronics industry. Furthermore, of those who still are lucky enough to hold on, thousands are working a four-day week.

Because this is the story of a score of U.S. industries, I checked it out in detail. In the first six months of '60 Japan sold $38.7 million worth of electrical and electronics equipment in our country.

Compare this with $22.1 million in the same period of '59. This means that we took half of Japan's total production in this field.

The Nipponese, for example, sent us 69 per cent more radio receivers in the first half of last year than they did in the same six months of the previous year.

Radio phonographs were up 92 per cent! Sound recorders skyrocketed 294 per cent. So it went with radio and TV speakers, condensers, receiving tubes and transistors.

THE MERCHANTS operating in Japan pay a 10 1/2 per cent tax on each TV set they sell here. But they slap a 25 per cent tax on every U.S.-made set sold in Japan.

Of course, everybody understands that in the tense international-political-economic warfare sweeping the world, it would not be right to be beastly to Nippon.

In fact, Darling and his colleagues winned and dined a Japanese labor delegation in Chicago last year. He took them through the most efficient factories there and tried to plant in the minds of the Nipponese union chiefs the urgency for raising wages back home.

If they could increase the Japanese workers' take-home pay and insist on pension and welfare payment to their people, perhaps the oriental production cost would rise a little. So would their prices. Then the competitive edge would not be so broad.

The Japanese ate, drank and were merry. They did very little about anything back home.

SO DARLING worked up his campaign. He conferred with depression areas chief Sen. Paul Douglas. Darling suggested that a law be passed permitting low or duty-free imports to be sold here only by foreign manufacturers who paid their people a minimum wage of a dollar an hour.

Thus there would be no tariff wall. We would actually be raising the wages of foreign slave-shop workers.

Thus, our foreign competitors could run their shops in two sections—one for the U.S. market at decent wages. The other at a wage meager enough to make sales in low-income land and under-developed lands. Now how could the Soviet propagandists attack us as economic imperialists for that?

To promote his "Buy American" campaign, Darling plans to run mass rallies all over Chicago. He will organize "Unemployment Squads" to make the city rounds and tell their story.

That story is "Unemployment—Made In Japan." To lend a helping hand to others is fine, says Darling. But what happens when that hand grows weak? Who will help whom then?

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: You keep asking us how things are up here at the Corners. That's nice of you, but what is it exactly you want to know? We have nothing to hide.

As far as we know, things are as good as could be expected. Maybe they could be better, but that isn't the point. They are as good as could be expected, all things considered.

We are not spring chickens fluffing up our feathers in the best of all possible worlds. We are a pair of old parties with more than an academic interest in discussions of what to do with oldsters in this country who can't write the high cost of dying on the cuff. They can't use the pay-as-you-go plan because they're not going anywhere.

This best of all possible worlds has been turned into a nightmare by tireless hammering on all the dismal things that happen in it.

You are in a better position to figure this out than we are, but it looks to us as though that fellow who defined news as a man biting a dog turned loose a load of mischief. Ever since then, news has been keyed to the exceptional event, especially if it was violent.

If no violence was occurring, the news processors either reviewed violence of the past or speculated about violence to come. Everybody now lives in an atmosphere of "the goblins will get you if you don't watch out—and how have you managed to survive this long?"

Nobody gives anybody else the benefit of a doubt anymore. We're all supposed to expect the worst, and you don't have to be a post-graduate head-shrinker to know that what people can imagine is twice as bad as reality.

Your aunt and I keep trying to fight this. We are not always successful, either. When we have finished talking someone out of the Great Dismal Dumps and have persuaded them not to jump because things may not be as hopeless as they have been made to seem by calamity howlers, we keep an eye on each other to make sure neither one of us makes a move toward the attic door. We're feeling the pressure.

But so far things always have taken a turn for the better in time to keep them from going from bad to worse. We noticed this morning at breakfast that the morning sun, which had been rising just south of the oak tree on the ridge east of the house had moved up until it was just north of the oak. That was a good sign.

We have noticed creatures we never saw before eating with the pheasants at the feeding station and last night we identified them in our Audubon book as grouse, though I must say that Audubon detected colors and shapes in birds neither of us can detect.

We are looking forward to one of our winter picnics this next weekend if the weather doesn't turn rough. A winter picnic always helps our perspective. It isn't as good as retreating to Florida, but it's one of the best ways I know to put a good face on winter. You can't lick it, so you might as well enjoy it.

Please do not make it sound as if you thought things up here might not be up to snuff. We're both well. We have not been down with the flu. We are sleeping well and eating well. Your aunt has been reading new books. I have been catching up on old magazines.

If we can hang in there until Groundhog Day, I think we can make the grade again, if that's what you want to know. Figure us at three to one to win, place, or show in 1961, and don't make plans to wear my beaver cap with the retractable flaps this winter. Maybe next winter. This winter the odds are against you.

The Great Transition

By David Lawrence

Switch In Administration Just Beginning

Many people have been led to believe by newspaper reports of conferences between outgoing and incoming officials that the period in government since the election has been a "transition."

Actually, the transition, in its truest sense, has not begun yet and will not start until after inauguration day. It may last a year or more.

Just now the government is passing through a period of re-shuffling of high positions.

Many of the top officials either have resigned already or are preparing to do so in a few days. As they pack their personal files and arrange to move their families, official business is necessarily piling up for their successors.

The incumbent official is in a dilemma. If he takes a positive position on a controversial subject, members of the opposite party will criticize him for not waiting for his successor to take whatever action the latter may wish.

The other day, for example, when the United States government was provoked by the Castro regime in Cuba to the point described by President Eisenhower as the "limit to what the United States can in self-respect endure," there were Democrats in Congress who openly insisted that the President should have left the matter of severing diplomatic relations to be decided by the Kennedy administration.

This is a narrow view, since responsibility is not in recess — it is continuous till noon of inauguration day.

The prevailing tendency, on the other hand, is to let most things slide. What is worse, the new officials cannot possibly learn in a few days all the background they need to help them formulate important policies. Some idea of the meaning of "transition" in government is given by Laurin L. Henry in a historical analysis just published in book form by the Brookings Institution of Washington. It is entitled "Presidential Transitions, and says in its introduction:

"The inauguration reunites popularity, influence, and formal authority in the presidency, but in some respects the shift of power is only beginning."

The new President and the associates he brings into the government now must begin to learn their jobs, fulfill their commitments and recast governmental policies in light of their own objectives. This process will require adjustments in the relations of the President with Congress, foreign nations, domestic interest groups, political parties, the federal bureaucracy and other institutions impinging on the presidency.

"THE ARRIVAL of a new administration is a crisis for all these groups, as well as for the presidency itself. The duration of the crisis will vary among sectors of governmental activity; in some areas the new administration may establish itself and restore stability within a few weeks; in others the instability may persist until the midterm congressional elections or longer.

In most respects, however, it seems to take about a year for an administration to put its stamp on basic policies and institutions and settle down to its characteristic modes of behavior."

Most important perhaps is the "transition" which goes on within the victorious political party and among its supporters throughout the country. For a long period they have been on the offensive, with almost daily criticisms about alleged inadequacies of the incumbent administration.

They now find it necessary to try to put into effect the broad promises of campaign days or to explain persuasively why "campaign oratory" is a species of political behavior that must be forgiven.

THE PUBLIC, too, somehow has to be persuaded to undergo some kind of transition. Already some of the Kennedy spokesmen are quietly conceding that, while it may have sounded brave and dashing only a few weeks ago to say that it was necessary to restore American leadership and take decisive action in Laos and Cuba, somehow this whole problem is really insoluble anyway in view of the state of the world.

Maybe in due time the many observers who have been calling for "bold and imaginative ideas" will confess also that it is impossible to run the world from Washington and that it was wrong to portray President Eisenhower as responsible for everything that happened around the world, from the riots in Tokyo to the antics of a Lumumba in the Congo.

THE TRUTH is that the Communist apparatus is today winning many triumphs in the cold war, not because of a lack of American leadership, but because of a lack of resoluteness among the political parties themselves in the free governments of the world.

In Canada the opposition party, led by Lester Pearson, former secretary of state for external affairs, has just voted in favor of a proposal that the Joint Canadian-American Defense Command be, in effect, dissolved because of a fear that somehow it might involve the use of nuclear weapons.

Indeed, the theory that another Hitler can be contained by retreat may come a cropper again. For Khrushchev will venture to go to the brink of war if he is confident that the free world's alliance is too weak ever to be solidified against him, and if he believes that on the Western side vacillation, fear, irresoluteness and appeasement have supplanted simple courage and sacrifice.

Paying Political Debt?

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON President-elect Kennedy is going through Adlai Stevenson's law firm like a vacuum cleaner.

He has already picked three members of the firm—including Stevenson—for top jobs in his administration, is expected to name another shortly, and gave a key post to a former Stevenson law associate.

All were long-time friends of Stevenson and his backers for the Democratic presidential nomination. But when Kennedy got it this year, they worked for him. And all know him personally, too.

It could be assumed Kennedy was paying off a political debt to them and or Stevenson for the help they gave him this year or was acknowledging his debt to the liberal view they represent and represented in the campaign.

But this writer contacted a number of people who know all the men given these choice assignments and they prefer to think Kennedy did his picking because these friends of Stevenson are brainy, distinguished men.

These are the three members of the firm already tapped: Stevenson, as ambassador to the United Nations; Newton W. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission; and Willard Wirtz, undersecretary of labor.

Kennedy shortly is expected to name another member of the Stevenson Chicago law office — William Blair—as an ambassador. Blair, rich in his own right and able to pay an ambassador's bills, is a long-time Kennedy family friend.

Kennedy chose George W. Ball, associated with Stevenson in a Chicago law firm back in the early 1940s, as undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

Minow 34, served as law clerk for the then Chief Justice Fred Vinson and was administrative assistant to Stevenson when the latter was governor of Illinois more than eight years ago.

Wirtz, 46, has a long experience in the labor field and has known the man who will be his new boss, Arthur Goldberg, secretary of labor, a long time. It's Goldberg who may have done the actual picking of Wirtz.

Besides being a professor of law at Northwestern University, Wirtz is also an arbitrator in labor disputes. During the war he served on various government bodies. Like many others called to Washington, Wirtz went to Harvard—the law school.

Ball at 51 has an international law practice, has crossed the Atlantic perhaps more times than he can remember, and is member of a law firm which has offices in Washington, New York, Paris and Brussels.

Back in the New Deal days of President Roosevelt, Ball worked in the Agriculture and Treasury departments and, during the war, in the Lend-Lease Administration.

Blair, better known to newsmen than any of the others, was a constant companion of Stevenson in his presidential bids and traveled abroad with him.

Judge Sets New Rates

Costs In Municipal Court Due For Increase Feb. 1

Municipal Court costs in both civil and criminal cases will be raised, effective Feb. 1, to bring them more in line with courts in other Ohio communities of similar size, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff announced today.

Costs in criminal cases, now $6, will be boosted to $7.50. Other charges, never previously levied, also will be made part of the system of criminal costs.

For instance, a not guilty plea will add $1; a continuance will cost 50 cents and an extra 80 cents will be added if the defendant posts bond. An appeal will add $7.50 to the costs. A charge of $1.50 will be made for issuing and serving of subpoenas. The additional costs will help cover the extra clerical work, the judge said.

Judge Chertoff said he will send notices to all attorneys advising them of the change in rules.

"A survey disclosed that the costs in the East Liverpool Municipal Court are lower than those of any court in a city of comparable size and among the lowest of all courts — even those in much smaller cities," the judge said.

"The court felt, therefore, that the costs must be raised."

The judge pointed out that a minimum of $10 in costs is required for filing any case in either of the three County Courts, located in Lisbon, East Palestine and Salem.

The judge explained there will be no change in the $7.50 costs required in civil actions in which the amount sought is more than $100 and the plaintiff is a non-resident of the county. Where the plaintiff is a non-resident and the amount sought is less than $100, the costs will remain at $5.

He listed this schedule of costs for other civil actions, with the present charge shown in brackets: Cognovit note, $6.50 ($5); forcible entry and detainer, $6.50 ($5); replevin, $6 ($5); and other petitions, $5, ($3).

Other new cost items, again with the former charges in brackets, are: Attachment, $2 ($1); garnishment, $3.50 ($2.50); proceedings in aid of execution, $3.50 ($2.50); writ of restitution, $2 ($1); and execution, $2 ($1).

In addition, the court will charge for these items, never before included in the costs: Alias summons of notice, demurrer or motion, $1 each; appeal, $7.50; certificate of judgment $1; subpoena, $1.50; transcript, $2.50; filing transfer of judgment, $5; petition to vacate, modify or revive judgment, $3; certification of documents with copy furnished, 50 cents, and copy prepared by the court, 75 cents per page.

In both civil and criminal cases, witnesses will receive fees of $3 a day and jurors will be paid $5 a day.

The judge cited the Mansfield Municipal Court as a court of similar size and listed some of its costs for comparison.

For instance, the costs in a forcible entry case are $12.50 and the same charge is made for an attachment or a replevin. Costs are set at $20 in a civil action against a non-resident. The Mansfield Court has a similar schedule of costs in criminal actions, including a basic charge of $7.50.

Beaver Yule Seal Drive Is Lagging

The Beaver County Tuberculosis Association still is conducting its sale of Christmas Seals and the office at Beaver reported the drive lags by some $12,000. The goal is $45,000, the same as last year.

Some 44,161 letters with seals were mailed to residents Nov. 14 and 18,000 have been returned. Those desiring to donate may still do so.

The association will begin its free chest X-rays for adults this year on Jan. 26 from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. at the Rochester General Hospital. X-rays will be given the 4th Thursday of each month through October. None is in November or December.

The schedule for outside X-ray clinics is being set up and they probably will begin about March 1.

Miss Elma C. Graham is director of the association.

Midland Fund Concern Will Elect Directors

The Midland Savings & Loan Association will hold its shareholders meeting Friday at 1:30 p. m. to elect 7 directors who in turn will elect officers. Mrs. Helen M. Smith, secretary, said.

The Dollar Savings & Loan Association of Midland will hold its meetings Monday evening at its Beaver office. Four directors will be elected, L. W. Smith, Midland manager, said.

Study Group Attacks Ike's Space Plans

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A study committee report sharply critical of the Eisenhower administration's space program calls on the Kennedy regime to recognize America's prestige is at stake in the race with the Soviet Union.

The report, made public by President-elect John F. Kennedy Wednesday night without comment, says the odds are heavily against the United States beating the Soviet Union in the contest to put a manned space ship into orbit around the earth.

The committee, appointed by Kennedy, urges determined effort and the spending of more money on the space exploration program generally—and particularly on development of more powerful rocket thrust for launching of spacecraft.

The group mentioned no specific figure in calling for additional spending.

The current Soviet advantage in firing vehicles into space stems from superior booster rockets.

The study committee asserted there is "overriding necessity to provide more efficient and effective leadership" for the U.S. space effort.

President Eisenhower has stated repeatedly that America's prestige is not at stake in the space exploration race.

The Kennedy committee's report said: "Space exploration and exploits have captured the imagination of the peoples of the world. During the next few years the prestige of the United States will in part be determined by the leadership we demonstrate in space activities."

The committee was headed by Prof. Jerome B. Wiesner, a Massachusetts Institute of Technology scientist. In making the group's report public, Kennedy announced appointment of Wiesner as his special assistant for science in the new administration.

persons to disperse and return to their homes.

Miss Hunter burst into tears when troopers escorted her from the dormitory and placed her in a car for the 73-mile trip to Atlanta—a journey marking the end, for the time being at least, of the first integration attempt in Georgia.

Police said eight students and nine persons from out-of-town were arrested during the rioting. One policeman, David Ballew, suffered a broken kneecap when three unidentified students pushed him off a wall. Several other officers were hurt by flying rocks and a rock or bottle smashed the rear window of Police Chief E. E. Hardy's car.

Mayor Ralph Snow of Athens said the city's meager force of police and firemen battled demonstrators with tear gas and fire hoses for several hours before three carloads of state troopers reached the scene.

The rioting and suspensions were similar to the action taken in the Autherine Lucy case in Alabama during 1956.

Miss Lucy was admitted to the University of Alabama under a federal court order but mob violence resulted in her leaving the campus. She was expelled from the school before she could return under another court order.

The flareup on the University of Georgia campus came after the two Negro students spent a relatively quiet day attending classes and temporarily focused attention away from today's scheduled federal court hearing in Macon.

At that time U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle will hear arguments on whether to make permanent an injunction which kept the governor from closing the university until a conflict between state and federal laws could be ironed out.

Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook and other state attorneys expect to ask the judge to dissolve the injunction while Negro attorney D. L. Hollowell intends to ask it be made permanent.

State officials predicted privately that a decision by Bootle to make the injunction permanent would be coupled with a decision voiding portions of a state appropriations act cutting off funds to any school that is integrated. That would do away with any move to repeal it.

State Treasurer George Hamilton said Wednesday he was not releasing some $2 million in operations funds for January for the 19 institutions in the university system.

He made the statement in a letter to State Auditor B. E. Thrasher Jr. in which he pointed out the university system has money to operate a month. "I hope," he said, "that this will force somebody to clear up the situation so I can pay."

Hollowell promptly obtained subpoenas requiring the state treasurer and the auditor to produce Hamilton's letter at today's hearing.

Reds May Ask U.N. Session On Belgium

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

The Soviet Union was expected to demand today that the U.N. Security Council ask the General Assembly to end Belgian trusteeship over Ruanda-Urundi, east of the Congo. There was a possibility the Soviets would ask for an emergency assembly meeting.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin also was ready to press a new attack on Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, charging that he condoned the use of Ruanda-Urundi as a jump-off site for a Congolese army attack on pro-Lumumba forces.

The council meeting was called to take up the Soviet complaint that Belgium helped organize the New Year's Day move by Col. Joseph Mobutu's troops against forces loyal to deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba in the Congo's Kivu Province, next to Ruanda-Urundi.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, signaled the Soviet tactic Wednesday night with a government statement calling for immediate independence for Ruanda-Urundi and again demanding "immediate withdrawal of Belgian armed forces and civilian personnel" from the Congo.

The Soviets said the U.N. should also carry out the recommendations of the Casablanca conference last week of the government leaders of Ghana, Guinea, Mali, Morocco and the United Arab Republic. They demanded that Mobutu's army be disarmed, Lumumba released from arrest and the Congolese Parliament called into session.

The statement concluded that the Congo should be discussed "at an emergency session" of the General Assembly if necessary.

The attack from Ruanda-Urundi failed and was a sharp blow to Mobutu's prestige.

Without Triggering War

U.S. Hopes For Turning Laos Tide Termed 'Slim'

Laos has become a key point in the cold war. Thousands of words involving claims and counterclaims swirl around this small kingdom. What are the basic facts in this situation? Here is an appraisal by an experienced AP reporter who has worked in China, Japan and the Soviet Union—and spent most of the last six months in Laos.

By ROY ESSOYAN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The Communist movement is chalking up gains in Laos. And the United States has little hope of reversing the tide without triggering full-scale war.

Most responsible officials here feel the United States will not take such a step unless Communist North Viet Nam invades Laos.

And these officials do not expect such an invasion.

This leaves two alternatives:

1. A political settlement benefiting the Communists because recent military successes have placed them in bargaining position.

2. Continuation of the six-year civil war in which pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels now hold the initiative thanks to military aid and advice from Soviet Russia, Communist China and Communist North Viet Nam.

The Pathet Lao are doing fine without a Communist invasion, and the Communists traditionally stop short of triggering bigger wars than they can handle.

A massive land invasion of Laos from China or North Viet Nam is physically impracticable.

It would take days to move invading forces down treacherous mountain paths and through jungle trails. Only a few so-called highways exist in Laos. The invaders would have to carry their backs because the terrain is too rugged to haul anything bigger.

Air invasion of Laos would be more practicable militarily, but practically no one here believes the Soviet Union and Communist China are prepared knowingly to precipitate an all-out war for Southeast Asia.

A covert test of strength with East and West each aiding and supplying its side, yes, but not all-out war.

A major East-West clash in Laos could envelop most of Southeast Asia because of the location of this landlocked jungle kingdom.

They are a drop of pure spring water in what is largely a sea of murk.

Cuba Papers Drop Stories On 'Invasion'

HAVANA (AP)—Predictions of a "Yankee invasion" were dropped from the front page of the semiofficial paper Revolucion today and replaced by an announcement of plans to build 20,000 government homes for workers.

This report was given banner-headline prominence, although the newspaper continued to drum up enthusiasm for Friday night's grand march to the presidential palace as a show of support for Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government against any threat of "Yankee aggression."

Castro is expected to address the meeting. Diplomats here predicted he would then claim—as he has in past invasion scares—that would-be invaders had been frightened away by a massive demonstration of Cuban power plus the support of the regime's friends throughout the world, including the Soviet Union.

A distinct slump has been noted in military activity around Havana.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is a swell dancer and he sure does know it. Whenever we are out on a party or with a crowd he asks me to dance and the minute he spots a better dancer on the floor he grabs her and throws me at her partner.

This has happened so many times it's beginning to irritate me beyond endurance. I've told him it's not only insulting to me but there is always the possibility that the girl he grabs may prefer the guy she's dancing with. He says I'm overly touchy and that no girl has ever complained.

I told him I was writing to you and he said you'll surely see the humor in the situation and tell me I'm wrong. Am I?—NO EXPERT.

Dear No: This is about as funny as a four-alarm fire in a home for the aged. Your husband's behavior is unspeakably rude and he must have a colossal ego to assume that every woman he encounters would rather dance with him than anyone else.

Tell him if he pulls this stunt again you will walk off the floor and leave him to battle it out with the man whose partner he tries to snatch.

Afraid Of Men?

Dear Ann Landers: I am a fellow 19 and in love with a girl who is afraid of all men. Her father beats her and uses bad language. He also hits his wife and slaps the other kids.

I want to marry this girl and take her out of that terrible home but she says she doesn't trust me and that I will probably treat her like her father treats her mother.

I've always been kind to this girl and I've never hit a woman in my life. What can I do to get her to marry me? She is of legal age and could leave whenever she wants to.—IN LOVE.

Dear In Love: This girl's home situation has twisted her thinking and I don't think you can easily untwist it.

The normal reaction of a normal girl would be to leave a punishing situation at the earliest possible minute. Since she chooses to stay at home and get belted around I don't think you should try to talk her into marriage. Find a new girl.

P.S.: She'll probably run off with the first guy who knocks her around like Dear Ol' Dad.

Early Morning Caller

Dear Ann: Is there anything wrong with an 18-year-old boy phoning a girl, 16, at 4 o'clock in the morning?

Our daughter has been going steady with Rick and they see each other every day, even if only for a minute. Rick works nights and our daughter is in high school.

We have a phone with a long cord in the upstairs hall. Our daughter often takes the phone into her room and closes the door. Then if she gets a call no one else in the house is disturbed.

This morning she was giggling about the fact that Rick had phoned her at 4 a.m. just for kicks. I thought it was rather cute but her father blew his top. Is there anything wrong with this?—NOT SURE.

Dear Not: There's a time and a place for everything. Four o'clock in the morning is not the time for a social call. It may not be "wrong" but it adds up to pretty poor judgment.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a good filler for floor cracks?

A. Make a paste of two cups flour, one tablespoonful of alum, and three quarts of water. Soak pieces of newspaper in this solution and boil well, stirring constantly. Use a putty knife to fill in the cracks. After the paste has hardened, apply a stain, and the filled cracks will hardly be visible.

Q. How can I avoid slipping on icy streets if the galoshes are worn?

A. If the galoshes refuse to take the proper grip when walking, fasten a few strips of adhesive tape diagonally across the soles. Of course these strips must be renewed from time to time, but even one day's wear may prevent a fall on the ice.

Q. How can I impart a gloss to the leaves of my ivy plant?

A. Try rubbing the leaves with a cloth dampened in salad oil.

Library Board Approves Remodeling Of Rear Entry

Remodeling of the rear entrance of the Carnegie Public Library is among 1961 projects planned by the Library Board of Trustees; along with the introduction of a teen-age "browsing" area.

At a meeting of the board this week — at which Atty. Robert A. Kapp, president, and other officers were returned — improvement of the rear entrance was discussed.

The board is planning to enlarge the entrance in some way to facilitate access to the building.

Also planned is utilization of the present office area in the north-east section of the building for a "browsing" area for junior high and early teen-age group. Such facilities are not now available.

A meeting will be scheduled with the East Liverpool Historical Society to discuss use of the downstairs area for the library offices. The downstairs is currently used for historical society storage and displays.

The 1961 budget was set at $60,300, up from the $56,500 of last year. Officers are Miss Sara Hedleston, vice president; James McGowan, treasurer, and Wilford Padgett, secretary.

Sworn in by Atty. Kapp were William Watkin of Wedgewood Ave. and Mrs. Charles Goodman of Pennsylvania Ave., new members, and Miss Hedleston, beginning a fourth term.

The next regular meeting is Jan. 30.

Dieter Proves Courage In Slimming Project

The real-life story of a courageous reducer is always fascinating, particularly when the dieter has a prodigious number of pounds to lose. When the goal seems so far off as to appear almost unattainable, the tendency is to put it out of mind. Today's story is heartening.

By Ida Jean Kain

"I feel as though I know you, because I always read your column. A couple of years ago I read about the many people who needed to lose 100 or more pounds. I felt encouraged and wrote for the 'revised Calorie Chart.'"

"Despite the best intentions I just couldn't stick with a diet and finally gave up. Well, last summer I tried on the tent I called a bathing suit . . . and it was too small. Size 32, and too small yet! Out came the Calorie Chart from its hiding place and I began."

"EVERYONE WOULD tell me, 'You're an R.N., you should know the danger of overweight.' It's true, I knew. Also my daughter, age 10, didn't want me to come to school and I knew why . . . even though she didn't say."

"I am 35 years old and I weighed 250 pounds. I'm sure you'll be pleased to know that I've lost 60 pounds and I'm still going strong. Now I weigh 190 pounds and wear a size 40. I really feel like a crusader and wish I could help others. I realize, however, that the incentive must come from within."

"I'm sure the biggest thrill of my life was last week when I went to visit my daughter's class and the 5th grade boys whistled at me. I almost cried . . . you can't know unless you have ever been the sloppy mess I was."

"My daughter is looking forward, as I am, to mother-daughter dresses next summer. She has never seen me this much slimmer. My husband is acting like a kid again. I can't tell you how happy I am and how grateful I am to you."

"I still have a long, hard pull ahead, but each day brings the goal a day nearer. Whenever I'm tempted I remember that the piece of candy, or whatever, will make that beautiful size 16 a day further away."

Cheers! To this spirited reducer, I doff my dietitian's cap. When I receive a letter such as the one from this dieter, I fervently wish I could shake her hand and look into her face while expressing my admiration.

COURAGE IS often pictured as a daring quality. The staying power required to carry through a long-term reducing project takes courage of a high order.

No sad songs for this dieter. Because she is making her slim-down program a part of joyous living, she will triumph.

Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Labeled Objects Help Child Learn

If your child in the first grade is not catching on at reading, here is something you might do at home to help him, regardless of the method of teaching reading at his school. Print large and plainly on a big placard the name of a familiar object about the house—table, chair, door.

Start with just Dr. Garry Meyers one or two. Tie or lay this placard on the object. Call it to his attention, saying the word as you do. Do this at irregular intervals. Occasionally ask him to find the placard-word of door, table and so on. He will enjoy this activity.

AFTER HE KNOWS three or four of these words, you might mix the placards and have him place each on the object it names, saying it as he does. You can think of all sorts of variations.

Be sure to add new placards very gradually and only after he knows perfectly the old ones. In this way he can learn a number of words at sight, the names of familiar objects about the home.

After he has learned two or three such words, help him to find each word on a printed page or a food package, saying the word as he does.

Although not many of these words may be in his school primer, a few may be. Even if none of them were, he has gained a feeling of achievement with words, has hit on ways of looking at a word. He gains a feeling of at-onement with printed words. He is getting the hang of reading.

THEN YOU can have him help you cut out of old magazines a few pictures of familiar objects and paste them on a sheet of paper or heavy cardboard. Under each picture you would print the name of the object.

After a little such experience, you might help him cut out and paste together on one page three or four pictures of objects beginning with the same letter, as "book", "boat", "ball", "bat" and have him say them aloud as he looks carefully at each word under the picture. Call to his attention that all these words begin with the same letter and sound.

Later he might do the same with pictured words in a group all beginning with the same sound made by two letters, as "chair", "chain", "child", "chick", or "tree", "train", "trap", or "plate", "plane", "plow".

HE WILL MAKE more progress if he already can name most or all the letters of the alphabet wherever he sees one of them. Being resourceful, you can do the foregoing with many variations, keeping always in mind what it is you wish him to learn and never adding new items too soon.

City Airman To March In Inauguration Parade

Airman 3C Thomas R. Dawson, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Dawson, 1709 Cleveland Ave., is one of the 3,600 Air Force men chosen to participate in the Presidential inaugural parade Jan. 20. Airman Dawson is a member of the 1100th Composite Wing in the parade that will be held in Washington immediately after John F. Kennedy is sworn in as the 35th president.

The city airman is a member of the 1100th Support Group of Bolling Air Base in Washington. He entered the service March 10 and was graduated in 1959 from East Liverpool High School.

The nationally-televised parade is expected to last two and a half hours. It will begin at the Capitol Building and proceed up Pennsylvania Ave. past the White House where the new president and vice president will review the marching units.

School Fund Panel Staged

A panel discussion on school finances and taxes highlighted the meeting of the McKinley Home and School Association Tuesday evening.

Participants included Supt. Ralph Betts, James Lowe and Walter Ashbaugh, members of the Board of Education and Edward Millward and D. Robert Ferguson of the budget committee. William Gaston, president, was moderator.

The program was presented by Mrs. William Sutherland, program chairman.

The unit expressed thanks to the board for having the interior of the school painted during the Christmas vacation.

Richard Betteridge, carnival chairman, announced the annual event will be March 10.

The attendance banner was won by the first grade. Refreshments were served by the fourth grade homeroom mothers, with Mrs. Robert Pickering, Mrs. Carl Porstman and Mrs. Lawrence Keeper in charge.

Ferguson led devotions and business was conducted by Gaston. Dr. Alexander S. Fisher will be the guest speaker at the meeting Feb. 14.

THE '61 CHEVY BRINGS

JET-SMOOTH TRAVEL DOWN TO EARTH

This is the Impala Sport Coupe—and you'll find 19 other Jet-smooth Chevrolets where this one came from!

HERE'S WHAT GIVES CHEVY ITS JET-SMOOTH RIDE—Full Coil suspension—Nothing cushions like a coil and Chevy's one of the few cars to give you a coil spring at every wheel. Precision-balanced wheels—Each wheel and tire assembly is precision-balanced before installation for smoother rolling with less vibration. Sound-hushing insulation—Roof, sidewalls, doors, instrument panel, hood, floor, and luggage compartment are carefully insulated against drumming and vibration. 51 built-in "shock absorbers"—the chassis is cushioned against shock and shake at every vital point. Live rubber body mountings—the body is joined to the chassis by large butyl rubber cushions that further isolate the ride from the road.

Better just circle your dealer's block the first time you try a Jet-smooth '61 Chevy. Get anywhere near an open highway and he's liable never to see you again.

What we mean, Chevy's ride whets your yen to travel. Wins you over with its delightful coil-spring smoothness, its hushed comfort and light steering. You find yourself feeling sorry for people who buy higher priced cars, thinking they have to pay premium prices for a luxury ride.

That may have been true at one time, but not any more. Chevrolet's ride, its roadability, just doesn't take second place to anybody's. As for the other pluses people usually expect only from costly cars, nobody can beat Chevy's Body by Fisher for fine workmanship. Notice the roominess, too. Space to stretch out and relax, larger door openings, higher seats, and an easier loading deep-well trunk that handles suitcases as if they were handbags.

Unless you work for the manufacturer, can you think of a real good reason for buying a more expensive car? We can't.

At Westgate Monday Night

Film To Be Shown Here Will Bare Red Activity

A film, "Operation Abolition," will be presented at the Westgate School auditorium next Monday under sponsorship of the East Liverpool Teachers Association.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. The film, to be shown by representatives of the Reserve Officer Association, Fort Henry Chapter, Wheeling, is a documentary, on-the-spot coverage of Communist-inspired demonstrations against the House Un-American Activities investigation held in San Francisco.

The film itself will last 40 minutes, with a question-and-answer period following under the direction of Lt. Col. J. E. Henry of the Reserve Officer Association.

Lt. Col. Henry was one of 200 officers of the reserve components of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force who were selected to attend the Defense Strategy Seminar at the National War College in Washington last summer. The seminar was authorized by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and also was sponsored by the Foreign Policy Research Institute of the University of Pennsylvania and the Reserve Officers Association of the United States.

Its purpose was to develop among a select group of Reserve and National Guard officers an understanding of the forces in the world which constitute a danger to the United States and discuss measures which can be adopted to counter the danger.

Lt. Col. Henry will be accompanied here by Lt. Col. John A. Collins, president of the Fort Henry Chapter, who also will take part in the program.

The program is open to the public, with no admission charge. Invitations have been extended service clubs and other civic-minded groups.

The film has not been shown previously in the immediate area, Watson said.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

'Untouchables' Gets A Competitor

The sweet smell of individualism (as opposed to committee rule) permeates the air as the Public Affairs producer says: "Maybe I have a Don Quixote complex, maybe I think I'm Walter Mitty, but I asked for the time period opposite the Goliath, this thing called 'The Untouchables.' This is lewd! This is vulgar! This is debasing to a nation's morals. 'Scar Face' I wouldn't object to, but 'Scar Face' every week is bad for television, bad for the country."

"It's unreal! If they're 'The Untouchables,' we're going to be 'The Touchables.' We want to reach out and touch them with reality. We're going to use Thursday night at 10 for realism, for the world about us, for real people, real issues, real controversy."

"It may be, in the beginning, that 20 times more people will be looking at 'The Untouchables.' So what? You have to begin some place. But if CBS leaves us in that Thursday night spot long enough, we'll hold our own against the Goliath, I know we will..."

IF WE MAY interrupt the torrent for a moment to introduce the speaker, he is Fred W. Friendly of "CBS Reports" fame, a visionary with a clear idea of what television can and should do with its enormous powers.

He also happens to be of the opinion that television is not a medium of entertainment so much as a medium of information—an idea he wishes would get some currency.

For his part, Friendly (closely allied with Edward R. Murrow at CBS these many years) will attempt to further the cause of informational TV as producer of the alternating "CBS Reports" and "Face the Nation" Thursday nights, 10 to 11, opposing the second half of ABC's high-rated "The Untouchables" (9:30 to 10:30).

FRIENDLY emphasizes that he requested the time period against the crime show, if only to prove to an industry that television was made not for fiction but truth.

"Every medium," he says, "does one thing best. Broadway does some things better than the movies can do, and the movies do some things much better than we do or than Broadway does."

"But the thing television can do better than anyone else is to take you to India or to a political convention or to a small county in Alabama. Then we're at our best and no one can do it better."

This Friendly has more than demonstrated through the distinguished "CBS Reports" specials which have been both fearless and forthright in pinpointing trouble spots in the world and focusing attention on matters that cry for correction.

He expects to make "Face the Nation," which recently came under his aegis, an extension of "CBS Reports."

"THROUGH 'Face the Nation,'" he continued, "we intend to create an appetite for and a knowledge of great debates. We want to do these in the tradition of the Lincoln-Douglas debates, so that four years from now, when our presidential candidates face one another on TV, they'll be forced to debate in the true sense of the word."

"What Kennedy and Nixon gave us on TV before the election were not debates."

"Nothing will clutter up our debates, neither studio audience nor a panel. We shall only recognize raw controversy, on important issues—Red China, the medical controversy, 'Is America Going Soft?' If a 'CBS Reports' subject should rub a faction of the public, we could debate the matter on 'Face the Nation.' The possibilities are endless."

As Friendly himself says, he may be "Don Quixote whistling in the wind." We hope not, largely because it'll be a better country, a better world if he were the man who knocked off "The Untouchables."

"THE WITNESS" on CBS lost battle for survival, and will be replaced Feb. 9 by "Gunslinger," written and produced by Charles Marquis Warren. This is a Western, of course, but CBS calls it "a frontier series," Western being something of a dirty word in TV today...

Ingrid Bergman's "24 Hours in a Woman's Life" has been postponed from March 6 to March 20, the change made at the behest of the sponsor, which wants the show "to tie in more closely with" its spring promotional schedule.

And the networks would have us believe that sponsors no longer rule the roost!

Sammy Davis Jr.'s portrayal of the battle-worn Puerto Rican ex-boxer in "Memors in White" on "Theater" last Sunday was a moving, penetrating performance. His antagonist, Charles Bronson, was equally effective in this Budd Schulberg drama which was more disturbing than an entertaining, as most good drama is...

Lining up as substitutes for the ailing Red Skelton on his weekly show are Ed Sullivan, Bobby Rydell, Jackie Gleason, Arthur Godfrey and Danny Thomas.

Beaver's Budget To Be $3,799,158

BEAVER—Beaver County commissioners Tuesday announced a total budget of $3,799,158 for the coming year and set the tax rate at 12½ mills, the same as last year.

Eight mills will be for the county and 4½ for the institutional district.

The budget includes $2,304,567 for the general county and $1,494,591 for the institutional district. The millage is based on an assessed valuation of $251,000,000, which is $5,400,000 over last year.

The commissioners finished the year in the black with approximately a $300,000 surplus, they reported.

Results Of Battle Of Antietam Outlined For Civil War Group

The critical effect of the battle of Antietam upon the outcome of the Civil War was described by Prof. Frank Smith of Steubenville College at a meeting of the Tri-State Civil War Roundtable Tuesday night.

Speaking to over 40 at the Carnegie Public Library, Prof. Smith said that Gen. Robert Lee of the Confederacy been able to win in Maryland and to threaten Harrisburg or Baltimore, England and France would have supported the Southern cause.

With European aid, through supplies or troops, the Confederacy would have been able to earn a peace settlement which would have left it an independent nation, perhaps even today.

Prof. Smith said the fighting at Antietam in 1862 cost the greatest losses in United States history up to World War II, and he termed it the decisive battle of the war.

It ended the South's chances of obtaining overseas aid and led to the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation by President Lincoln which won European backing and bolstered the Union through its propaganda effect.

The history instructor listed some blunders on the Union side—Gen. George McClellan's delay in striking at the invading Confederate army and Gen. Ambrose Burnside's failure to attack promptly when ordered.

Prof. Smith was introduced by Miss Frances Jones, program chairman. Joseph Robbins, membership chairman, reported 1961 dues are now payable.

The next meeting is Feb. 8.

The session for presidents was directed by George Dickson of Hanoverton, for secretaries by Floyd Lower, for treasurers by Bill Skeels, News, Paul Young of Lisbon, Health and safety, Mrs. C. L. Kelly of Salem and Mrs. Anna Gruber of Hanoverton, and recreation, Norma Shade of Leetonia.

Advisors heard a panel discussion by Mrs. Ruth Frishkorn of Wellsville, Mrs. George Hawkins of Salem, Mrs. Carl Miller of Leetonia, Mrs. William Brown of Sallineville, Harold Millikin of Salem and I. F. Skeels of Lisbon with Glen Bartholow of Salem moderator.

Farmers Told Of Deadline

LISBON — Clifford F. Shaw, chairman of the Columbiana County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, advised farmers that Jan. 31 is the final date price support loans can be disbursed for 1960 crop wheat, oats, barley and rye.

Application for loans or purchase agreements must be filed at the ASC office in the Farmers Bank building by the close of business Friday, Jan. 20.

The date was set to allow time for inspections and processing the loan by Jan. 31, he said.

Shaw said the county office is now accepting requests for cost-share on practices under the 1961 agricultural conservation program.

He recommended that conservation practices be planned and requested early, allowing time for compliance with regulations, some of which have been changed for 1961.

Many farmers will find that a soil test will be necessary where liming materials are being used. Soil tests should be taken early, allowing time for the results to be available to the county committee when approvals are made, he said.

Agents Will Assist Vendors In Filing Sales Tax Reports

Examiners of the State Tax Department will be on duty in 5 Columbiana County communities in late January to aid vendors in filing sales tax reports for the last 6 months of 1960.

The examiners will be stationed at the City Hall here Jan. 27, 30 and 31. The schedule for other communities is: Wellsville City Hall, Jan. 26; Columbiana, Keller Hardware Store, Jan. 27; Salem City Hall, Jan. 30, and Lisbon, Courthouse, Jan. 31.

Jan. 31 is the deadline for the reports. Delinquents are liable to a penalty of $1 a day for each day the report is overdue. When seeking assistance, vendors should take along a copy of their sales tax returns, a copy of their last report, and a record of prepaid tax receipts purchased in the period covered by the return, the tax department said.

The fact a vendor did not have a vendor's license for the full period July 1-Dec. 31, was not open for business or made no taxable sales does not justify failure to file a return, the department said.

24 At County VFW Session

Twenty-four attended a meeting of the Columbiana County Veterans of Foreign Wars Council Wednesday night at Lisbon Post 4111.

Six posts were represented, plus the Toronto post. The Jefferson County unit has been accepted in the council, pending approval of the department at the spring conference in March at Akron.

Toronto has petitioned to join Columbiana Council because there is none in Jefferson County. If allowed, this will make nine posts in the council.

A bill of $12.33, for cigarettes given county draftees leaving from Lisbon, was ordered paid.

A letter was received from Charles Henry, director of the VFW National Home, thanking the council for $100 to purchase drapes for the Ohio Cottage.

Jim Rhoades, VFW representative on the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission, reported over $10,000 in relief was approved in December.

Plans for an airlift Jan. 21 as part of a contest were outlined. District officers will pick up the dues lists from each post and take them to Canton. There, they will be flown to Columbus and the district commander who completes the work first will be given an expense-paid trip to the commanders' conference at Washington.

Lunch was service by the host auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Marie Cosma, president.

The next meeting is Feb. 8 at East Palestine Post 457.

Saturday Night Game At Niles Is Potters' '61 Grid Opener

EL Needs One Opponent For 10-Game Card

A Saturday night opener at Niles on Sept. 9 will get the 1961 football season rolling for the East Liverpool Potters when the campaign arrives next September.

Niles, the No. 2 team in the final Associated Press state poll, is one of two new opponents the Potters will face next season.

Here's Sixth Grade Schedule For Friday

4—Chuck Kennedys vs. Columbian Co. Finance
4:15—Knowles vs. Police Dept.
5—George Bright's vs. American VII.
5:15—Smith & Phillips vs. Wetzel-Patterson Cleaners

Cleveland Glenville is the other. The Cleveland team will come here Nov. 10.

There now are two open dates on the slate, but only one will be filled since only a 10-game schedule will be played this year instead of 11 in line with a rules change adopted by the Ohio High School Athletic Association.

With the one game yet to be scheduled, the Potters show six home tilts and three away.

The first engagement at Patterson Field will be with Steubenville Central on Friday, Sept. 22. Central has been moved up in the schedule.

Other home attractions are Canton Central, Oct. 6; Youngstown Rayen, Oct. 13; Bellaire St. John's, Oct. 27; and Salem, Nov. 3.

The Potters will play at New Philadelphia on Sept. 29 and wind up the season at Alliance Nov. 17. Niles, Canton Central, Youngstown Rayen, Salem and Alliance were all ranked among the top 10 teams in the state sometime during the 1960 season.

The 1961 schedule, with the exception of one game, follows:

Sept. 9—Niles, away
Sept. 15—Open
Sept. 22—Steubenville Central, home
Sept. 29—New Philadelphia, away
Oct. 6—Canton Central, home
Oct. 13—Youngstown Rayen, home
Oct. 20—Open
Oct. 27—Bellaire St. John's, home
Nov. 3—Salem, home
Nov. 10—Cleveland Glenville, home
Nov. 17—Alliance, away

Purdue Star Tops Scoring

CHICAGO (AP) — Purdue's Terry Dischinger is making a fast start in defense of his Big Ten basketball scoring title. He poured in 41 points against Northwestern in his first conference effort.

The 41 tally, made last Saturday, gives Dischinger a head start in the scoring race, official Big Ten statistics showed today. He gets back into league action again Saturday at Minnesota.

Dischinger hit at a 750 clip from the floor against Northwestern, but Ohio State's Jerry Lucas topped this with 824 in rolling in 35 points against Illinois last week in his opening conference bid. Lucas' next target is Northwestern, which top-ranked Ohio State invades Saturday.

Other top scorers are Walt Bellamy, Indiana, 23.5; John Tidwell, Michigan, 21.0; Frank Allen, Iowa, 18; Larry Siegfried, OSU, 18; and Tom Bolyard, Indiana, Tim McGinley, Purdue and Brad Snyder, Northwestern, all with 16 averages.

Bellamy is tops in rebounds with 34 in two games. Dischinger and Siegfried lead in free throw accuracy, 11 for 11 and 12 for 12, respectively.

Team leaders include: Best field goal percentage — Purdue, .469; free throws — Purdue .864; rebounds — Indiana, 64 average; points—Ohio State, 91; Defense—Iowa, average yield of 57.

Pistons, Knicks, Nationals Win In Pro Cage Games

By The Associated Press
If the Cincinnati Royals harbor any playoff intentions, they'd better do something about that injury that is stalking them when they play in Detroit.

The Pistons beat Cincinnati for the 18th straight time over the past four years in the Motor City Wednesday night, 126-122, snapping a six-game losing streak in the National Basketball Association.

The New York Knicks won their fourth in the last five games with a 109-104 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers while a red-hot shooting performance by Dolph Schayes in the second half helped carry Syracuse to a 133-128 victory over St. Louis in the other scheduled games.

Bailey Howell, rapidly becoming one of the NBA's top-performers, broke a 119-119 tie for Detroit with two minutes to go with a pair of foul shots and Cincy was dead.

Potters Will Attempt To Stretch Streak To 7 On Road

If the East Liverpool Potters can overcome the "jinx" of the Toronto court, they could be off to a good start on a pair of weekend road games.

Over the years East Liverpool has found it tough winning at Toronto. Last season the Potters came close but were nipped by the Red Knights, 62-61, in the last few seconds.

The Toronto encounter is one of two this weekend. East Liverpool takes a long hike to Ashland Saturday.

Coach Jim Harris' team has fashioned a five-game winning streak after losing its opener.

Toronto will take the floor Friday night with a 3-3 mark. Its last defeat was at the hands of Wellsville, 66-58. The Red Knights did not play Tuesday night.

A freshman will appear in the Toronto lineup. He is Tom Coulter, 5-foot-8, who rates as an outstanding prospect. He has a fine jump shot and his style of play is similar to that of Kenny Cunningham of East Liverpool.

Two other starters expected to give the Potters trouble are Max Sherwood, 6-foot-2, a strong rebounder, and Frank Spreinde, a 6-foot-2 letterman.

Take On Toronto Friday, Then Face Tall Ashland

In compiling a .500 mark so far, Coach Paul Kalivoda's Toronto five rates a strong team on the backboards but weak in the shooting department.

The "Little Potters" will go up against more height than they have seen all season Saturday at Ashland.

Four of the five starters will be over six feet. Bob Sweet, a two-year letterman, is the lone regular from last year's team and the ringleader this season.

Sweet stands 6-foot-4½ and has been averaging 16.2 points per game. He was hitting at 20 points a game until the last two contests when he dropped to around 10 or 11 markers.

Another rebound ace for the Arrows is John Rhodes at 6-foot-3. Rhodes has been hitting at a 13-point clip. The other scorer on the club is Larry Casey, standing 6-foot-1. His average reads about 10 points a game.

Rounding out the starting lineup is Roger Post, the smallest starter at 5-foot-8. Bruce Smalley, the only junior to start, (the others are seniors) was playing with the reserve squad until Ashland's last game.

Coach George Valentine promoted Smalley, who stands 6-foot, to a starting varsity post, and he responded with 14 points against Mansfield.

Ashland, which plays at Dover Friday night, has split for a 4-4 mark in eight games. The Arrows own victories over Mt. Vernon, Gallion, Bellvue and Dover. They have been defeated by East Cleveland Shaw, Lakewood St. Edwards, Wooster and Mansfield.

Ashland plays in McDowell Auditorium located in back of the high school.

Games both nights at Toronto and Ashland will get underway about 8:30 preceded by reserve contests which will start at 7:30.

U.S. Probably Won't Restrict Cuban Players

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban baseball players are awaiting—some anxiously—clarification of their status as members of United States major and minor league clubs.

The rupture of U.S.-Cuban relations last week threw a cloud over the future participation of Cubans in organized baseball in the states.

Women Boosters To See EL-Wellsville Movies

Movies of the East Liverpool-Wellsville game will be screened by head coach Jim Harris when the Women Basketball Boosters Club meets tonight at 7:30 in the Hi-Ten rooms of the YMCA.

But baseball authorities here are confident the U.S. State Department will give the green light to Cuban players.

Felipe Guerra, Cuban sports director, has announced there will be no restrictions imposed on Cuban players requesting exit permits to play abroad.

Washington's official attitude about issuing baseball visas still is not known. In the past Cubans entered the United States under special permits renewable annually.

It has been a practice for a club to which the player or players belonged to make visa requests on their behalf via the State Department. It is not known here if any club thus far has made the usual visa request for Cubans.

American clubs have a good sized investment in Cuban talent. Nearly 200 Cuban players are ticketed for action in the major and minor leagues this season. Between 14 and 19 of them carry big league credentials for spring training, at least.

Golf Picture Shifts Today To San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Golf star Arnold Palmer launches a comeback today as 138 professionals and 13 amateurs open play in the $20,000 San Diego Open.

Much against his will, Palmer retired from the Los Angeles Open after only two rounds. He failed to qualify for the final two rounds, thanks to his 12 strokes on one hole and a 77 for the second round.

His composure, and very likely his game, restored, Palmer resumed a campaign to match all the laurels he won in 1960, which included the National Open, the Masters and more than $80,000.

The tournament scene is the 6,725-yard, par 35-36 71 Mission Valley Country Club. Sunny weather was promised.

The field is possibly the best in the history of San Diego's winter fixture. Twenty-eight of the 30 top money winners of 1960 are entered.

Prominent is 29-year-old Bob Goalby, who won the $45,000 Los Angeles open last Monday. Goalby is seeking three straight tournament wins. Prior to the Los Angeles triumph, he closed out 1960 with a victory in the Coral Gables, Fla., open.

Billy Casper Jr., former U.S. Open champion, pulled the three-straight feat last year, winning the Portland, Ore., and Hesperia and Orange County, Calif., opens. Casper is entered here.

The defending San Diego champion, Mike Souchak, also is present. A year ago he shot rounds of 67, 68, 67 and 67 for 269. Par for the course then was 72. Also here is Art Wall Jr., runner-up at Los Angeles.

Elias Seen Top Pick For Virginia U. Post

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Bill Elias, a miracle-worker at George Washington University last fall, is the leading candidate for the head football coaching job at the University of Virginia, the Virginian-Pilot said Wednesday night.

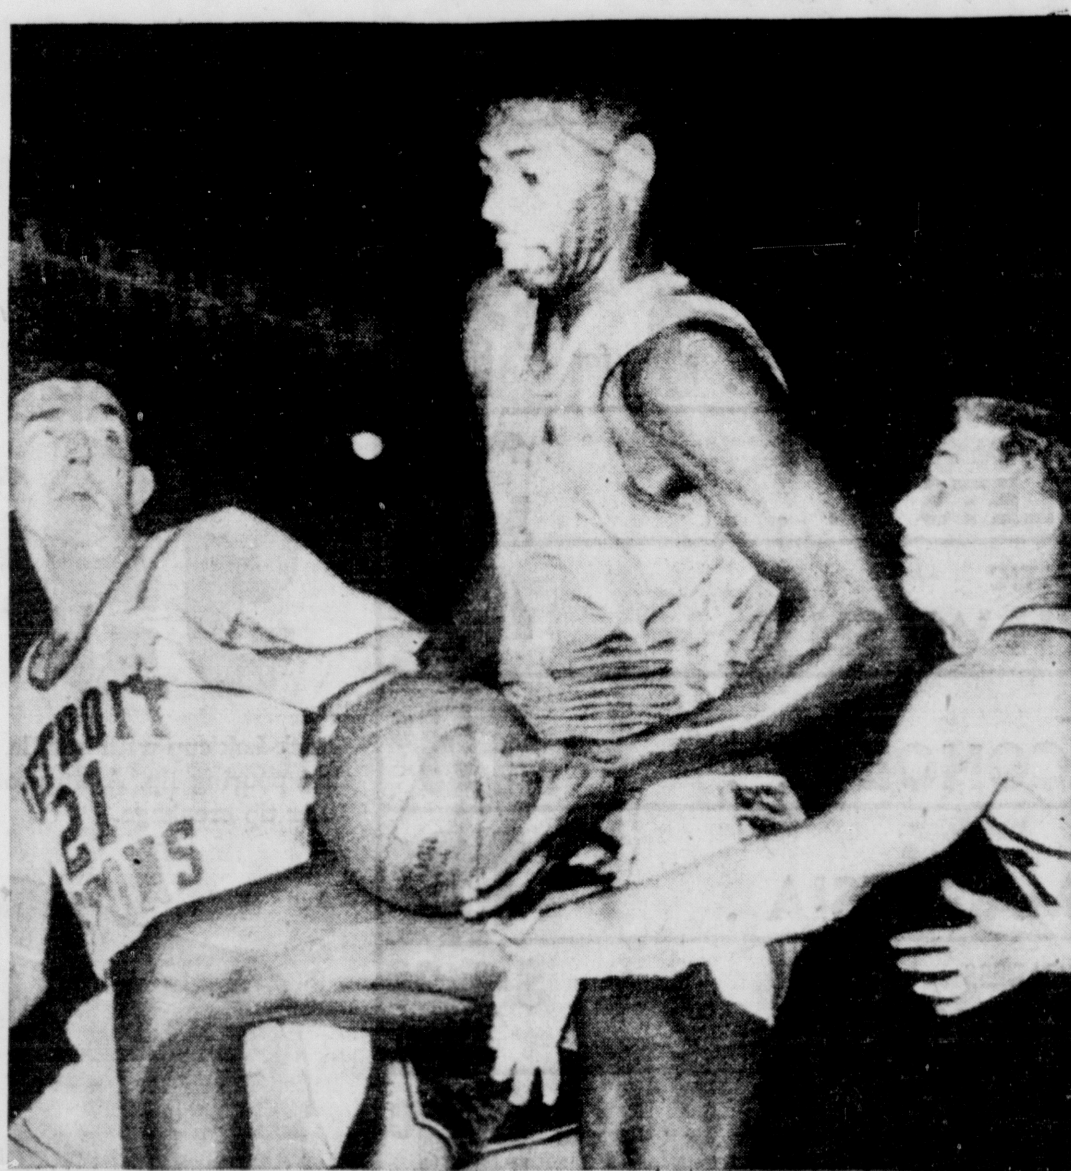

A three-man screening committee talked to more than a score of candidates during the NCAA meetings which closed in Pittsburgh Wednesday, and has apparently narrowed the field to four, with Elias the No. 1 choice, the paper said.

The others are Bill Hess of Ohio University, Dave Nelson of Delaware, and John Pont of Miami University (Ohio).

Virginia, burdened with a 28-game losing streak on the gridiron, has been minus a football coach since the reluctant resignation of Dick Voris in December.

Bowling Tourney Set

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Ohio women bowlers will spend 17 week-ends at the sport here, Jan. 28 through May 21, at the 35th annual Ohio Women's Bowling Tournament. Some 2,516 doubles teams and 5,032 single bowlers will compete.

OSCAR ROBERTSON (14) juggles for possession of the ball in the first period of Wednesday's game at Detroit. Gene Shue (21) and Chuck Noble (right) move in an effort to snare the ball from the Cincinnati Royals' star. Detroit edge Cincy, 126-122. (UPI Telephoto)

Key Games Set Friday

Stanton, Newell Quints Show Top Marks In Area

The formalities appear over for several district basketball squads who have to get down to serious business this weekend with important league or sectional battles on tap.

East Liverpool, Midland and Columbiana are down for games that may help decide either top-seeded or title spots later this year.

The Potters (5-1) visit Toronto for a Sectional Class AA contest. Midland High entertains league-leading Beaver in an important Section 8 contest. The Leopards, 7-4 for the season under Coach Hank Kuzma, are 2-0 in their section. Beaver leads with three straight wins.

Columbiana (6-1) visits Minerva for a Tri-County League game and will have an opportunity to end the Lions' 31-game league winning streak and take over sole possession of first place.

Stanton Local still leads all area teams with an 8-0 record and is a favorite to sweep No. 9 at Smithfield Friday night. The Smiths, 2-8 for the year, picked up a 65-55 triumph over Wayne on Tuesday. Harry Diehl's Irons rolled over Wayne twice this year in easy fashion.

The Irons face perhaps their most dangerous opponent thus far Saturday night in visiting Beaver Local (6-1). The game will be the first between the two schools.

Stanton Local is one of two unbeaten teams in Jefferson County. Mount Pleasant, also a Class A school, boasts a 9-0 mark and lists a top scorer in veteran Eddie Peltz.

Newell which holds second place in the district with a flashy 8-1 mark, visits Weirton Madonna and New Cumberland (7-2) entertains Follansbee St. Anthony in other games expected to be close.

East Palestine lists the area's most consistent shooter in Jim Hartshorn who is averaging 22.7 points per game with a total of 159.

Stanton Local's Don (Wilt) Spires and Ken Cunningham of the Potters are neck-and-neck for second place with 21.2 and 21.1 averages, respectively.

Following are Wellsville's star, Bob Kiggins, (20.3), Tom Bell of Newell, (19.2), and Ken Miller of the Potters and Gary Perkins of Columbiana (17.0 each).

Season records and individual scoring leaders of area teams follow:

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The argument - weary Ohio Racing Commission holds its second special hearing today in an attempt to settle a dispute over racing dates for two Toledo horse race tracks.

Dates running from April 1 to May 22, a total of 44 days, were tentatively given to Toledo Raceway Park. Toledo-Maumee Raceways has asked for the same days. During Wednesday's special hearing, Maumee Raceway attorney William Jacobs questioned William J. Cull, secretary for the commission.

Hawks' 7-Game String

Snapped In 2-2 Draw

CHICAGO (AP) — The third-place Chicago Black Hawks had their victory string stopped at seven games Wednesday night but managed a 2-2 tie with the fourth-place Detroit Red Wings.

It was the only game scheduled in the National Hockey League.

At 16:47 of the third period, Bobby Hull, defending National Hockey League scoring champion, took a long shot rebound and drove the disk behind Detroit goalie Hank Bassen. It was his 20th goal of the season and locked the game.

Balanced scoring led by Jim Cerasi's 18 points carried Bright's to its second victory. Al Dawson and Wayne Cline added 14 and John Watson chipped in with 11.

By R. L. LIDE

Mourning doves and meadow larks, birds that belong way down south this time of the year, are still sticking around.

I have noticed the absence of robins this winter for the first time in the last several years. Maybe they finally come to realize the pickings are much better down below the snow belt.

O.D. Stanley and Ralph Wutrick, two farmers in Knox Township, have donated ear corn for winter feeding of game. I found out about this when I ran across Karl Mayer of Westville Lake coming out of the woods with an empty cardboard box after establishing feeding stations at the various brush piles and brambles.

If the cold and snow continues, I would like to suggest that the various sportsmen's organizations use some of their accumulated funds and buy ear corn and organize a winter feeding group that can be depended upon to help wildlife survive such unusual weather.

IF ANYONE else has any ear corn they wish to donate, I know plenty of sportsmen who will hop to it, who gives more than "lip service" to wildlife. "Lippers" are a dime a dozen and the most eloquent (?) lipper usually has a small cheering section that can disrupt any kind of meeting called for the benefit of conservation when he with his extrovert ideas takes the floor.

People complaining about cats grabbing off a bird at one of the back yard or front yard feeders should erect their feeder on a steel pole out of the cat's reach. Might as well try to keep a duck out of water as to keep a cat from grabbing any song bird on to which he can latch his hooks.

There are two excellent articles in the current January issue of The Ohio Conservation Bulletin, a non-profit magazine published by The State Department of Natural Resources.

One is "History of Conservation in Ohio", the other, "25 Years of Hunting", written by Merrill C. Gilfillan. Sportsmen who ask, "Where's all the game?" or, "What's happened to the wildlife?" will find a good many answers to numerous questions.

TO GET BACK to the bird feeders. I wonder how many are experiencing trouble with the starlings taking over?

Starlings and redwing blackbirds are protected by law and can be shot or destroyed only when doing damage. The redwings moved south when the first puff of frigid air moved in, but starlings stay where they are established.

Sometimes I wish I could attract a few hundred into one small patch while I had the opportunity to blast them with a few rounds of No. 10 bird shot. Look what they are doing at our airports? Foxes have been declared a nuisance; no law protects him. I wonder how long the redwings and starlings will be allowed to keep increasing? I predict that in due time something will be done against them.

County Group To Hold Ham Shoot On Sunday

The Columbiana County Fish and Game Association will hold a ham shoot Sunday at 1 p. m. at the club's range located off Route 7 on the Lisbon-Elkton Rd. in back of Brookside Park. Trap shooting and still targets will be used.

Tennessee St. Leads Small College Poll

By The Associated Press

Tennessee State, riding a 13-game winning streak, has increased its lead over Hofstra in the weekly Associated Press small college basketball poll.

Tennessee State, beaten only in its season opener, collected seven first place votes and 79 points in the balloting by The AP's eight-man board, representing each of the NCAA districts. Hofstra (10-1) drew the remaining first place vote and 63 points, although it lost to Albright after 23 straight victories.

A week ago, Tennessee State was named the top team on only three ballots and received 57 points while Hofstra had two firsts and 53 points.

The leaders, with won-lost records through Jan. 9 and first place votes in parentheses (points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis):

1. Tennessee State (7) (13-1) 79
2. Hofstra (1) (10-1) 63
3. Mississippi Southern (11-1) 46
4. Southern Illinois (9-3) 35

Fight Mixup Doesn't Worry Contestants

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Having two champions in one division makes for some confusion but it's a merry mixup as far as the fighters are concerned.

Take the middleweights, for instance. Paul Pender of Brookline, champion of the 160-pound class by Massachusetts, New York and most of Europe. Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, is hailed as king of the division by the National Boxing Association.

Because it can be billed as a title fight, the fourth Fullmer-Sugar Ray Robinson battle on Feb. 25 has been sold to television for $150,000.

The same goes for the Pender-Terry Downes scrap at the Boston Arena Saturday night. This one went for $65,000 to TV. Of this Pender will receive $35,750 on his 55 per cent cut of the TV fee, and Downes, the English champion, will collect $13,000 on his 20 per cent.

If Pender didn't own a piece of the crown, the fighters probably wouldn't receive more than the usual $4,000 each for the television.

Pender, a 2-1 favorite, ended boxing preparations for Downes Wednesday. He plans to taper off with light gym work this afternoon and Friday.

Downes finished his boxing Tuesday. The challenger also will wind up his training with light workouts today and Friday.

Duquesne Bows To Flyers

Toledo Nips BG In Last 7 Seconds; Dayton Wins

By The Associated Press

Coming through in the clutch, Toledo won a hair-raising 68-66 Mid-American Conference victory over Bowling Green when Larry Jones hit two free throws with seven seconds left. Dayton scored nine points in the last minute for a come-from-behind 60-56 victory over Duquesne. Defiance finally gained the winning lead over Ohio Northern with 58 seconds left in a 69-66 Mid-Ohio League thriller, and superiority in the last three minutes gave Kent State a 76-73 MAC victory over Western Michigan.

In other games, Miami of Ohio snapped a six-game losing streak by beating Marshall 71-68 in another Mid-American battle. Mount Union overwhelmed Denison 84-49 in an Ohio Conference tilt. Youngstown pulled out of a 37-37 halftime tie to whip Central State 86-72 and Rio Grande rolled over Wilberforce 90-81.

Toledo's homecourt victory gave the Rockets a 4-0 MAC record, to Ohio U.'s 3-0. Toledo shed an early 15-point lead as the Falcons cut the margin at halftime to 39-34. The outcome was in doubt until Jones sank his two free throws.

Dayton's scoring spree at Pittsburgh wasn't hampered by a Duquesne full-court press. In fact, the press proved the Flyers' undoing, as the Flyers made three free throws for the final points.

Defiance's win gave the Yellowjackets undisputed hold on the Mid-Ohio League lead at 4-0 to Northern's 3-1. The Yellowjackets had a 17-0 lead, but blew it by the time the second half was only five minutes old. At that time, Northern went ahead 39-38. Defiance finally went ahead to stay at 65-64 after the lead changed hands four times.

Western Michigan led Kent through most of the first half, but fell behind 45-42 at intermission. With three minutes to go it was tied 71-71, but Harry Kalbaugh's two free throws and Harvey Hunt's two-pointers provided Kent's winning margin.

In snapping its losing streak, Miami virtually eliminated Marshall from contention in the MAC race. Marshall trailed through the entire first half, but came back to take a five-point lead with six minutes left. Then successive goals by Gerry Saunders, Dave Zeller and LaVern Benson pushed Miami back in front to stay.

Lombardi Names Four Colts On Starting 11

LOS ANGELES (AP) — West Coach Vince Lombardi has named four Baltimore Colts — and only two of his own Green Bay Packers — to a tentative starting offensive lineup for Sunday's pro bowl game at the Coliseum.

Green Bay's Paul Hornung, who set a National Football League record last season by scoring 176 points, is not among the starters. He suffered a leg injury late in the season, and again in the playoff game against Philadelphia, but is expected to be able to play Sunday.

Buck Shaw of Philadelphia, coach of the East all-stars, hasn't announced his lineups.

Tentative starters in Lombardi's backfield are quarterback Johnny Unitas of Baltimore, halfbacks Lenny Moore of Baltimore and Jon Arnett of Los Angeles and fullback Jim Taylor of Green Bay.

Up front are ends Gail Cogdill and Jim Gibbons of Detroit, tackles Jim Parker of Baltimore and Bob St. Clair of San Francisco, guards Tan Jones of Chicago and Art Spinney of Baltimore and center Jim Ringo of Green Bay.

The West is favored by one point, the smallest margin odds-makers have assigned to any team in the 11-year history of the event.

The West has won 6 of 10 previous games.

Duke Sophomore Stars In Overtime Decision

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Hey, man, this Heyman's still at it — acting like the sophomore of all college basketball as he and the Duke Blue Devils drive toward the regular season championship in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Just earning a starting spot on Duke's veteran team might have been honor enough, but young Art Heyman's doing much more. Like Wednesday night when the eighth-ranked Blue Devils came from 11 points behind with 2:45 left and finally edged upstart Virginia 92-90 in overtime.

It was Heyman's field goal with 35 seconds left in regulation time that climaxed an 11-0 burst and finally got Duke even after Virginia (2-11) had built an 81-70 lead. In overtime, it was the 6-foot-5 sophomore's soft push shot that won it with 12 seconds remaining.

Comebacks, spectacular shots and upsets marked the college program in general Wednesday night. St. Joseph's (Pa.) spilled fifth-ranked St. John's 74-71 behind Vince Kempton and Jack Egan in the windup of a Philadelphia Palestra doubleheader that opened with New York University's 70-67 upset of Temple. Army, holding Villanova scoreless for the first nine minutes shocked the touted Wildcats 64-49, and Dayton's Flyers beat Duquesne 80-56.

Georgia Tech rolled to an 89-80 overtime triumph over Georgia. Maryland (8-3) got 16 points from Bruce Kelleher in a 55-47 victory over Georgetown, and Air Force squared its record at 5-5, downing Centenary 61-59. Florida (7-6) dominated the boards and rallied to spill Miami of Florida to its fourth loss in 12 games, 81-73, and Toledo (9-1) won its fourth straight Mid-American Conference tilt, 68-66 over Bowling Green.

Piersall Says He Would Be Sad If Traded To A's

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Cleveland outfielder Jimmy Piersall says he wouldn't be happy if traded to Kansas City and, if he had a choice, would take Boston over any other town.

"It's more satisfying to play for a pennant contender like Cleveland, than for Kansas City," children live."

(Frank) Lane has a long, hard pull ahead of him there."

Lane quit last week as Cleveland's general manager to take a similar job with Kansas City. Later, he suggested Piersall be traded to the Athletics.

Piersall, here Wednesday for a speaking engagement, said he realizes Lane has "got to keep the fans coming. He apparently thinks I might help. I appreciate that. But if I was to be traded and had a choice of cities, I'd take Boston where my wife and seven

New Library Book Takes Rap At Publishing Firms' Control

Occupying a prominent spot on the Carnegie Public Library's new fiction shelf this week is a small volume teeming with barbed criticism of the publishing industry. Albert Van Nostrand in "The Denatured Novel" asserts that motion pictures and the pocket book companies positively control the type of fiction being published today.

Water System Chemist Hired

Francis Wise, 32, of 3214 Broadway will begin work Feb. 1 as chemist in the city water department pumping and filtration plant in Klonkyne.

Wise, now employed in the cold strip department at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., was appointed to the $484.50-a-month job Tuesday night by the Board of Public Utilities.

Wise succeeds Donald T. Duke, who was appointed superintendent about two months ago following the retirement of Frank K. Robinson. The job title is assistant-chemist. When Duke held the post he served as chemist and also as understudy to the department superintendent.

Wise is a son of former Police Chief and Mrs. L. J. Wise, now of Pompano Beach, Fla. He was graduated from Ohio University with a bachelor of science degree in chemistry. Wise's duties will be at the water purification plant.

The utilities board also awarded two contracts for material for repair of its reservoirs next spring, acting on bids received Tuesday noon.

A contract to supply 200 tons of sand and cement mix was given the Pre-Mix Corp. of Cleveland on its low bid of $1.30 a ton, including delivery.

The Day & Maddock Co., also of Cleveland, was given a contract for a "cement gun" on its low bid of $1,270.

Both contracts were awarded pending approval of the Board of Control, comprised of Mayor Bert H. Goodhull and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver.

The sand and cement, mixed with water and applied under pressure with the cement gun, will be used to repair the walls of the Thompson Hill Reservoir and the Huston Hill Reservoir. The project will not begin until warm spring weather arrives, the board said.

Injuries Are Fatal

CLEVELAND (AP)—Carl Cheraso, 67, died in Marymount Hospital Wednesday of injuries received when he was hit by a car Dec. 16. The retired shoemaker was a deaf-mute.

Mothers Named For Dimes March

Several from nearby Pennsylvania communities have been named chairmen of the Mothers March on Polio, to be held Tuesday, Jan. 31.

They include Mrs. Edward E. Ingledale of Ohio View for the industry area; Mrs. Frank K. Moore of Georgetown for Hookstown and Greene Township; Mrs. Paul Brandon for Georgetown and Mrs. Robert L. Drake of Shippingport for Shippingport and Smiths Ferry.

Volunteers will conduct the drive. The March of Dimes campaign began Jan. 2 and end Jan. 31.

The office at Beaver said there is no set goal. This year, first defect children, rheumatoid children and children up to 18 will be given patient aid besides polio cases which are handled.

There were four serious cases in Beaver County last year, the office said. The foundation at Beaver also has 30 old cases.

Half of the proceeds will go to the National Foundation for research and the remainder for patient aid.

Sues Against Airstrip

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Trustees of Chester Township sued in Geauga County Common Pleas Court Wednesday to halt operation of a private airstrip used by W. and L. Turcoy on Wilson Mills Road. One of the trustees, John Richmond, said the property was zoned for residential use and several residents had complained of noise and low-flying aircraft.

Burglary Loot $493 At Calcutta Hardware

Sheriff's deputies are continuing an investigation of the burglary of the L. & M. Hardware at Calcutta in which loot totaled $493, including items worth $366 and $127 cash, early Wednesday morning.

Fred Bailey and Miss Ronda Brown, associated in the corporation operating the store, said the thieves knocked out a 36-x-30-inch window and frame to gain entrance sometime after 1:15 a. m. They discovered the money and items missing when they opened the store.

The loot included a girl's bicycle, pellet gun, mixer, 4 clocks, table model radio, 3 electric percolators, electric iron, 5 electric drills, 33 pocket knives, 2 toasters, a sled, a radiant gas heater, 2 wrist watches and 15 hunting knives.

Chief deputy James Miller said part of the money included receipts for dog licenses sold at the store.

Bird Observed In River May Have Been Swan

A large, white bird resembling a swan was seen swimming in the Ohio River near Babbs Island late Tuesday afternoon by several city residents.

Charles Allison, 1104 Vine St., who observed the bird with binoculars from a window of his home, described it as "a big, white bird, resembling a trumpeter swan, with a long neck that appeared to be about two and a half feet long."

The description of the bird given by John Porter of the Review advertising department coincided with that of Allison and both believe it was a swan.

Reds Say U.S. Planes Buzzed Soviet Ships

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union charged today that U.S. military aircraft buzzed 35 Soviet ships in various seas last month. The Soviets warned that such incidents must cease.

Minister Viktor Bakayev, at a news conference, waved a piece of paper and said it was a radiogram from a Soviet sea captain reporting that a British bomber was "raiding"—meaning buzzing—his ship this morning.

The radiogram, Bakayev said, was from the ship Sergei Kirov at the southern entrance to the Red Sea.

Pupils in the first five grades returned to classes yesterday afternoon. Classes were dismissed yesterday morning while broken glass, paper and personal belongings were cleared up.
